Pres. Lee of Trainmen Says Impending Strike Will be Greatest in History

One High Union Official Declares Date for Walkout Already Set

SUN'S DOG STORY WAS WIDELY READ

"I am not exaggerating when I say that we have received at least 150 telephone calls as a result of that dog story. The Sun published about a week ago."

That was the unsolicited statement made to a representative of the paper today by Mr. Charles E. Richardson, president of the Nova Humanes society. Mr. Richardson had reference to a story telling how an ordinary yellow female dog, just deprived of its offspring, mothered five handsome Boston terrier pups that had been left, motherless, in the care of the Humane society.

Evidently the story was widely read and appealed to many Sun readers, for Mr. Richardson stated that he received many offers for the dog, besides scores of congratulatory messages for the kind act he had performed.

"A number of people offered me sums of money over the phone for the pups, but I refused to sell them. Their attention to the dogs had been called by the item that was published in the Sun." Mr. Richardson said. "The puppies are getting along nicely with their adopted mother."

"I am sending the terrier pups were offerings of the yellow dog by the way, the latter nurses and mothers the young ones," Mr. Richardson says.

NOTRE DAME ACADEMY

Alumnae Association Holds Twenty-Sixth Annual Reunion and Banquet

Two hundred and seven members of the alumnae association of Notre Dame academy, with representatives of classes from 1885 to 1921, assembled at the school on Adams street at 10 o'clock this morning, for their 26th annual reunion and banquet. Graduates gathered from all parts of the United States, a great many from every corner of New England, ten-year friendships started in school days, the graduated of former years to become acquainted with those of recent years.

Although primarily a day of happy greetings and jolly reminiscences, those members who have passed away occupied first thoughts this morning when a memorial mass was sung in the chapel with Rev. Dr. James Steele of the Patrick's church, officiating. Addressing the attractiveness of the occasion, Miss Terese Slattery sang Rosemary's "Ave Maria."

Following the service, a social hour was enjoyed, giving an opportunity for the older members to greet and make welcome into the association the members of the 1921 class who graduated from the academy last year.

At noon a business meeting was held when officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows: President, Miss Annie J. Devine, Lowell; first vice president, Miss Rose Joyce, Lowell; second vice president, Mrs. Alice Bresnahan, Cushing, Peabody; secretary, Miss Blanche Walsh, Lowell.

BLUENOSE IN LEAD IN ELIMINATION RACE

HALIFAX, N. S., Oct. 15.—Eight fish weighing smacks, groomed like Becherons for a workhorse parade, got away at 10:30 o'clock today for the first of two elimination trials which will determine the Nova Scotian schooner to meet Elsie of Gloucester for the blue ribbon of the north Atlantic, off this port, Oct. 22.

Bluenose left across the starting line, practically on the gun. Following her closely were Canada, Alca, Independence and Duffy, the rest being bunched back of the line.

The first leg about six miles, was laid down from the starting line to a buoy off Bear Cove, south by the compass. Then the course turned southeast for a distance of a little over six miles to another automatic buoy after which came a stretch of nearly 10 miles southwest to Sambro lightship.

Wheeling around the lightship, the racers were ordered to work back northeast a little over 11 miles to the buoy which had marked the end of the first leg. The last leg was identical with the first, ocean terminals breakwater being both the starting and finish line.

ARREST MADE IN LIQUOR SEIZURE

The police have succeeded in tracing who in their opinion is the owner of about $2500 worth of Jamaica ginger, alcohol, liquor and paraphernalia seized by Sergeant Michael Winn and his liquor squad, assisted by Federal Officer Sheldon, on the night of October 6 in a barn on Branch street. They arrested on a warrant last night Philip Cohen, who was arrested before Judge Enright this morning, but at the request of counsel was granted a continuance until October 29. The raid resulted in the seizure of 3000 various sized bottles of Jamaica ginger, a fifty gallon can of alcohol and 13 half-pints of whiskey, besides empty jugs, funnels and containers. The raiding party stated that the barn had the appearance of a "young" brewery, as scattered about the floor were empty bottles of various sizes, funnels, containers and corks.

The first leg about six miles, was laid down from the starting line to a buoy off Bear Cove, south by the compass. Then the course turned southeast for a distance of a little over six miles to another automatic buoy after which came a stretch of nearly 10 miles southwest to Sambro lightship.

Wheeling around the lightship, the racers were ordered to work back northeast a little over 11 miles to the buoy which had marked the end of the first leg. The last leg was identical with the first, ocean terminals breakwater being both the starting and finish line.

BRINGING IN THE PROPRIETOR

Judge Enright Wants Employers and Not Clerks in Liquor Cases

Proprietor of Grocery and Fruit Store Fined $150 in District Court

Following the issue of an order by the local court some time ago through which the police were instructed to arrest the proprietor of a store where liquor was found, the first offender under this ruling was summoned before Judge Enright in the local district court today.

The police had been raiding stores and near beer saloons and halting inns, but claimed to have been clerks in those places and not responsible for the presence of the liquor, when several weeks ago, the court ruled that the proprietors of the premises should be arrested on a warrant and charged with the offense, the clerks really not being the violators of the prohibition laws. In effect, the police liquor squad set out to obey the instruction of the court and after making a recent raid on a store where they only found the clerk, a warrant was issued for the owner.

Peter Kowalski, proprietor of a grocery and fruit store on Lakeside avenue, today was fined $150 for illegal keeping of liquor with intent to

MOTORCYCLE RACES AT GOLDEN COVE

The first annual racing event under the direction of the Lowell Motor cycle racing association was staged this afternoon at Golden Cove park.

Lieut. Harold Dyer and a corps of assistants had charge of the track and handled matters in an efficient manner.

White amateur and novice bicycle races provided much entertainment for the crowd, it was the high-powered racing motorcycle with its ever-pending death threat which furnished the real thrills of the afternoon.

The riders out to establish records set up a terrific pace all afternoon and the manner in which the bending machines whizzed around the track was enough to give even the most cool blooded a few spinal quivers.

Foreman On Highway Construction Job Brutally Murdered—Alleged Murderer Arrested in Holyoke

Charged with one of the most brutal murders in the history of Middlesex county, Tony Salvato, 35 years old and single, a state road worker employed on construction in Littleton, was arrested this morning at the home of a friend in Holyoke. He is accused of inveigling Paulos Coe, foreman of the highway construction job, into a lonely road leading to the Westford-Littleton line, where, the police allege, he attacked the foreman with both an axe and a revolver.

The murder is alleged to have been committed two days ago, and Coe's strange absence from work resulted in a search that led to the discovery of his mangled body.

When found, the body of Coe was in terrible shape. His head was crushed in from repeated blows with both the blade and blunt side of an axe, the police allege. The foreman had also been shot twice from behind, both bullets entering the body in vital places, it is claimed.

The disappearance of Salvato, a workman with whom Coe had had trouble, it is said, led to a search for the man by the police, who located him this morning in Holyoke.

URBAN HOMER IS MUCH TOO MUCH WATER USED ON LOWELL'S SMOOTH PAVED STREETS, SAYS MARRIED MAN

When the continued case of Urban A. Homer, charged with the non-support of two minor children, came up before Judge Enright this morning, a greater problem than was apparent when the charge was originally heard, faced the court. It seems that Homer married in Lowell years ago, but disappeared later, finally turning up once in California and after that in Providence. The police say that Homer, without obtaining the proper divorce papers, married again in Providence, the two children by this marriage being the ones whose support is sought.

Wife No. 2 had been in court the first time about a week ago, but today wife No. 1 appeared before the justice.

She told the judge that she never received notice of a divorce having been obtained by her husband. The police are of the opinion that Homer was married the second time without waiting the year's period required to have elapsed before the divorce decree becomes absolute. Judge Enright thought the Rhode Island authorities should be notified of the existing matrimonial tangle and just for that the case was continued to next Thursday. Another phase of the affair that is more or less puzzling to the court is: Is wife No. 2, the support of whose children is asked, the legal wife of Mr. Homer?

Answering the complaint Mr. Bowers

Demurrer of Chicago Tribune Sustained

CHICAGO, Oct. 15.—Judge Harry Fisher today sustained the demurrer of the Chicago Tribune to the $10,000,000 libel suit brought by the city of Chicago. He declared the city had no cause for action and denied it the right to amend its petition. The city brought identical suits against the Tribune and Daily News, asserting the papers had printed false statements regarding Chicago's financial standing, and thereby injuring the city's credit.

Boston Man Left Episcopal Church for Catholic—Became Famous Passionist

CHICAGO, Oct. 15.—Very Rev. James Kent Stone, Fr. Fidelis, a famous Passionist preacher, died here yesterday at the age of 61. Fr. Fidelis was born in Boston, a son of Rev. Dr. John S. Stone, rector of Christ church, Brooklyn, and later head of the Episcopal seminary at Cambridge.

Fr. Fidelis was educated at Harvard college and German universities. He was professor of Latin 1862-1867, and later president at Kenyon college, Ohio. He was ordained in the Protestant Episcopal church in 1868, and received his degree of D.D. from Princeton college in 1871. He was made president of Hobart college, Geneva, N.Y., in 1888, but resigned from that position and the industry in 1895. He became a convert to the Roman Catholic church a year later.

Fr. Fidelis was ordained a priest in the Paulist order in 1897, and became a Passionist monk five years later. He was a member of the Passionist order in Argentina, and during 12 years in Buenos Aires founded several monasteries. He returned to the United States in 1903, and became conductor of American Passionists in 1902, and provincial master of novices in 1902, and provincial in 1905.

Hearing of Defendants Indicted in Logan

LOGAN, W. Va., Oct. 15.—The hearing of defendants indicted in connection with the disorders along the Logan-Bonnie county border in August and September, was expected to be continued in circuit court today before Judge Robert Bland, to whom many of the cases have made application for bail over the objection of the prosecution. The trial of 31 of those indicted following the disturbances which resulted in the deaths of 11 men, was continued last Wednesday until the January term. Judge Bland yesterday admitted to bail eight members of the United Mine Workers who were indicted among the 31, but refused bail to 12 others.

Plan To Cut Rates On Coal Nullified

WASHINGTON, Oct. 15.—Efforts of the Union Pacific to reduce rates on coal between Wyoming mines and Utah cities to the level maintained prior to the general rate increase of 1920, were nullified by the Interstate Commerce Commission today in the issuance of an order suspending the effective date of the schedule until Feb. 12, 1922. The rates were filed by the road to become effective Oct. 15 but the commission said that complaints before it to the effect that the reduction would be injurious to interstate transportation of coal required hearings and investigation.

Chairman Casey Before Highland Club—Supt. Molloy Asked to be Heard

Hon. James B. Casey last night addressed a meeting of the Highland club on the new charter which comes before the voters of this city for acceptance or rejection at the special election Tuesday. After the address quite a stir was caused when Hugh J. Molloy, superintendent of schools, asked the privilege of the floor to express his views on the subject.

Mr. Casey had just concluded his address and had asked if any present would like to ask questions, when Mr. Molloy made his request.

Mr. Casey was introduced by Orrin H. Webster, who said the club deemed it advisable, considering the importance of the coming election, to have the features of the proposed charter explained.

Gratification was expressed by Mr. Casey that the opportunity to talk upon this subject was afforded him before the club. He said the charter to be voted upon represents the very best thought of 15 men who are not self-appointed and who have absolutely no selfish motives whatsoever and no political aspirations in the sections they have framed.

He sold the average citizen of Lowell does not take the interest he should in the progress of the city, but that ward representation would have the effect of causing the people to take a more direct interest in the government of the city.

Mr. Casey then went into a general discussion of the new charter with respect to the functions of the elected and executive heads of the city and the removal of certain office heads if their work is not satisfactory to the city council.

He favored the large council in municipal affairs and in the school committee. He also attacked the emergency clauses for the borrowing of money now in vogue and favored the board of public service in the maintenance of some of the city departments, claiming it would systematize the work.

"The new charter is not a drive at any particular head in the city hall at the present time," said Mr. Casey. He continued: "We have some good men there, and I hope they will remain. Regarding the changes advocated in medical inspection in the public schools, Mr. Casey said he thought a greater degree of efficiency could be had with the board of health in charge of the work. This, he said, would assume the form of a sub-department of water works, which would have charge, under the direction of the director of public service and city engineer, of the construction and repair of streets, sewers, drains and sidewalks. They shall also appoint and remove for cause which they may deem sufficient, a superintendent of water works, who shall have charge, under the direction of the director of public service and city engineer, of the water works of the city.

Part 4. The board of public service shall have the general direction through their executive officers of all municipal clerks and laborers who shall be employed in one or more departments at the pleasure of the board so as to form one or more city labor units which may be available for any city work which may become necessary in any departments under control of such board.

Part 5. The aforesaid executive officers shall be appointed for unlimited terms, but may be removed by a majority vote of the board for cause which it may deem sufficient, and may be reelected in such work as may devolve upon the incumbents of such offices or be persons specially fitted by education, training or experience to perform the same.

Part 6. Said board shall have cognizance and general direction of the construction, repair and care of all streets, ways and sidewalks, and of all poles, conduits and wires in or over the same; of the construction, alteration, repair and care of drains, common sewers, drains and water pipes; of all other structures and public grounds, except the commons and public parks and playgrounds, and of such grounds as are appurtenant to buildings in charge of other departments, as is provided elsewhere herein. Said board shall also have exclusively vested therein the powers and shall be subject to the liabilities and penalties conferred or imposed by law on surveyors of highways. No person, department or city, or corporation, except the state, shall dig up or open for any purpose any public street or way in said city without first obtaining permission in writing from said board.

Part 7. Said board will do the work of the corporation upon its street. It must restore it to the satisfaction of the board or said board will do the work at the expense of the delinquent party.

Part 8. The said board shall also, annually, on or before the third Tuesday in January submit to the mayor and city council a report of all money received for the regular operation and maintenance of the three departments of engineering, streets and water works for the current fiscal year.

Part 9. The said board shall also, annually, not later than the second Monday in March, prepare and furnish to the mayor and the city council with a complete and detailed report containing its recommendations relative to new highway and sewer improvements for the city for the current fiscal year, all of which shall be accompanied by estimates of costs and outline plans of the proposed work.

Part 10. The said board shall also, annually, during the said fiscal year, for that purpose, the super-

PARTY LINES IGNORED ON PANAMA TOLL IN THE SENATE

Mass. Senators on Opposite Sides--American Legion Starts an Active Campaign--Women Assail Winslow on Maternity Bill--Still Unreported

(Special to The Sun) WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 15.—The republicans call the democrats of the senate "a noisy and selfish minority"; democrats retort by dubbing the republicans a "split majority without harmony or leadership." In a way both accusations are true. Playing for political advantage is one of the features of the fall session, for primary elections are less than a year away and another election looms in sight. The victory in which both parties are striving to "write on" their political slate.

But when it comes to a vote, neither party is running true to the old-fashioned custom of standing by its own. Take for instance, the vote on the Panama free tolls bill. Scarcely a state threw its combined vote on the same side of the question. This was especially noticeable in the New England delegation. Senator Lodge voted against the measure, and Senator Walsh for it; Maine split even, the both senators are republicans; New Hampshire and Vermont did likewise. One each of the Rhode Island and Connecticut senators was present and voted, the other senators from these states were absent from the room when the vote was taken. Other parts of the country showed the same independence, and if that method of breaking party lines is to continue, it will be practically impossible to forecast the result of any vote on big measures. On matters that come more directly under partisan principles, the democrats are hanging together much more firmly than are the republicans, whose ranks are badly split among the men representing agricultural and industrial districts. These so-called "Blues" are likely to cause a big upheaval in republican ranks, and many compromises and modifications of original plans must be the order of the day, if the senate is going to assist in making good the campaign pledges of the party in power.

One thing that is bothering the republicans who are still titular leaders although short of much of their genuine power, is the determined effort progressives and the farmers' bloc are making to win democratic support to their side of the case. They do not expect the democrats will follow them when the final vote comes, but they do expect the democrats will join with them in forcing through amendments that will shape the bill along bloc lines, when it comes to a vote. In that case the republicans must either kill the bill they are suffering, or adopt it with amendments that are obnoxious to the conservative leaders of that party. It's a case of turn-about, however, and the democrats are trying to make the trade to fit their own views, and bid for the support of the disgruntled republican faction, in case the other method fails to the ground. This week there has been much bitter

TO WORK

A Mother Tells How Her Daughter Was Made Well Again by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Philadelphia, Pa.—"At the age of sixteen my daughter was having trouble every month. She had bad pains across her back and in her sides, her back would pain her so that she could not do her work and would have to lie down. My married daughter recommended Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. She took it faithfully and is now regular and has no pain. We recommend the Vegetable Compound and give you permission to publish this letter."—Mrs. KATHY EICHNER, 403 N. Fairhill St., Philadelphia, Pa.

Standing all day, or sitting in cramped positions and often with wet feet, young girls contract deranged conditions, and before they are hardly aware of it they develop headaches, backache, irregularities, nervousness and bearing-down pains, all of which are symptoms of woman's ills. If every mother who has a daughter suffering from such symptoms would profit by the experience of Mrs. Fisher and give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a fair trial we may expect the same happy result.

12,000 REFUSE TO WORK ALPHONSE AND GASTON

Miners Who Quil When Howat and Dorchy Were Jailed, Remain Idle

PITTSBURG, Kas., Oct. 15.—The administration of President Alexander M. Howat of the Kansas mine workers, suspended by John L. Lewis, president of the International union, continued in office today and approximately 12,000 miners who quit work when Howat and August Dorchy, union vice president, were sent to jail for violating the criminal section of the Industrial Court act, remained idle.

Meanwhile, observers here were watching closely what many thought was a break in the ranks of the strikers, with those in the north favoring continued refusal to recognize the provisional organization set up under President Lewis' order and those in the southern end ready to go back to work.

While the suspended officials remained in charge of the district headquarters today the provisional body, established in a local hotel, sought to transact business. Each side has served notice on local banks having union deposits not to honor checks issued by the order.

GANG OF COUNTERFEITERS

Federal Officers Arrested 11 Alleged Members Within 24 Hours

BOSTON, Oct. 15.—Eleven men, believed to be members of a gang of counterfeiters working along the Atlantic coast have been arrested at Norfolk, Va., and Charleston, S. C., within the past 24 hours. Inspector Hobart of the treasury department staff yesterday informed Judge Flayden in the Roxbury district court.

The inspector appeared on behalf of Kirkpatrick Brown, charged with passing a counterfeit $10 bill, asserting that Brown was an innocent tool of men who had passed the false notes on him. Brown was freed.

One-dollar bills, shaved down and raised by the addition of a cipher at the corners are the spurious paper mainly being circulated by the counterfeit gang, Hobart said.

In Chelsea yesterday Jake Gilman was found guilty of raising a $2 federal reserve note to $10. Owen P. McKenna, special agent of the treasury department, testified that 1000 slips marked "10" had been found in Gilman's room.

RELATIONS BETWEEN U. S. AND GREAT BRITAIN

LONDON, Oct. 15.—Discussions of the relations between the United States and Great Britain, filled much space in today's papers. Aside from references to the probable visit of Prime Minister Lloyd George to Washington and arrangements for Monday's ceremony in Westminster Abbey, there was printed a long appeal from prominent persons interested in the Sugrave Institution asking the public immediately to raise £20,000. This institution has been working to bring about closer relations between America and Great Britain and sponsored the work of restoring the ancestral home of George Washington, which was recently rededicated.

The sum asked for by the institution is desired as a "prelude to American Armistice Day and as a practical evidence of British interest in the movement toward a better understanding."

The London Times and the Morning Post warmly recommended the appeal.

Prime Minister Lloyd George's proposed visit to America was commented upon by the Daily Chronicle, which remarked his departure would be dependent upon the Irish conference and expressed confidence that if the prime minister arrived after the opening of the Washington meeting, Americans would attribute his tardiness to a good cause.

MIAMI, Okla., Oct. 15.—The approaching armament limitation conference called by President Harding will be a sort of "Alphonse and Gaston" performance, according to the prediction in an address here yesterday by former Senator Thomas P. Gore of Lawton, Okla.

The court was asked to restrain from interfering with men who are willing to work under different contracts from those stipulated by the council, which controls 20,500 carpenters, according to the bill. The eight concerns employ 2500 carpenters who are known as inside men. Counsel for the company said that mill and factory owners were compelled through the council to pay $1.10 an hour whereas in other cities the scale was 70 to 85 cents.

THE STRAND

"Dangerous Curve, Ahead," and "Help Wanted: Male" Early Week Attractions at the Strand

The programs that General Manager Thomas D. Soifer of the Strand has arranged for the coming week are again marked with a brand of superiority in motion pictures that has come to be quite common in offering at this theatre. The "Danger and Help" policy that Mr. Soifer promised the patrons of Lowell and vicinity for the fall and winter months are being realized from week to week, and what is more encouraging and satisfying to the management of the future will see even a higher standard.

The bill for the first three days of the week, starting with matinee on Monday, will be Rupert Hughes' greatest drama, "Dangerous Curve," said to be one of his best efforts, and listed among "the biggest pictures of the year." The other contribution to the first of the week of offering will be Blanche Sweet in "Help Wanted: Male." The week-end program, starting on Saturday, will be headed by William Farnum, the strong man of the screen, in his last picture release, "His Greatest Sacrifice." Marie Prevost in "Moonlight Follies" is the other attraction. Besides these big features there will be the usual comedy and variety.

Rupert Hughes' first original screen play, "Dangerous Curve Ahead," is a worthy successor to many another stage and screen triumph with which this well known author has been associated.

The story concerns a "hooch" Maize, played by Helene Chadwick, who is engaged to one but flirts outrageously with another young man of her acquaintance. This results in a broken engagement, with misery, recompense, reconciliation, and marriage in its wake. Then the young husband goes away for a time, and once again the young wife, thinking this time that she will help rather than hurt, keeps an engagement with another man. This is only one of the several "dangerous curves" that she encounters during her years of married life. The truth of life, the comedy and humor which is lent to it is most enjoyable. See the picture and enjoy it.

Blanche Sweet is the heroine of a rollicking, romantic comedy called "Help Wanted: Male," a pictorialization of Edwina Levine's amusing story, "Leopold Goes to the Dogs," the title indicates, the story concerns a girl's plot to catch a rich young husband.

Miss Sweet is wonderfully clever in her part, and she received the support of a competent cast. Miss Sweet wears many beautiful and becoming gowns.

The action of the story takes place at a fashionable seaside resort, with a hydroplane playing an important part.

The popular William Farnum will be here again during the last three days of the week in his big, emotional photoplay, "His Greatest Sacrifice," a dramatic compilation on the screen by Mr. Farnum has been a joy to all motion picture lovers and according to advance reports, "His Greatest Sacrifice" is a picture that gives the stars an opportunity to lay claim to the quality of work that they have done in the public's eye.

Marie Prevost, the fascinating Universal star, former bathing queen, comes to the Strand in her new and gay photoplay, "Moonlight Follies." King Baggot, the foremost pioneer actor of filmdom, was in charge of the filming of "Moonlight Follies," and he has brought out many phases of a most enjoyable and entertaining nature. Miss Prevost makes a wonderfully interesting character of the adorable little kittenish "Baby Wimp." To see her in all her glory as the possessor of everything that the man she wants, and the man who she wants to conquer, him is surely interesting. The story has spice and interest.

The remainder of the bill will be rounded out with a great comedy and one or two weekly issues that prove so interesting and at the same time instructive.

For Sunday the management has arranged the usual high class vaudeville program and an entire change of pictures.

B. F. KEITH'S THEATRE

Hope Eden, Greatest of Milt Headers, Will Be Headliner of Next Week

Claud and Fannie Usher, who have ruled the female performers at the B. F. Keith theatre during the present week, will appear for the dual times of the engagement tomorrow afternoon and evening, giving their delightful study of a phase of life called "The Girls of the House." Called on the bill for the day will be Carleton & Tate, Fisher & Gilmore, Murphy & Lachmar, Kluting's Animals, Green & Robinson and Griffith and Welch.

Hope Eden, acclaimed by everybody as the finest exponent of thought transference before the American public will be the very natural selection for first place on next week's bill. Frescott, himself a noted telescopist some years ago, appeared with this gifted young woman in an act declared by Bostonians to be the kind ever presented in that city. Not only is it the best as to quality of work, but Miss Eden does not descend to claptrap or to any comedy features to convince her audience of the sincerity of her work. She gives her readings of the mind, on two parts of the theatre, however, only questioning which hold the earmarks of being asked because her auditors wish an answer. Nothing just like Miss Eden's work has ever been done before, and it is bound to be a success.

The remainder of the bill is of top-notch quality. Jean Graneese, an unusual songstress, will be the runner-up for applause. Her manager reports from stating just how Miss Graneese is unusual, but so she is indeed and no report managers in whose theatres she has played give her the same. And Marjorie Dale will give their side-splitting turn called "Embosses from Joyland," and they will live right up to the title they carry. Then there is The Belgian Rose, a real novelty of the present season. Paul Green & Miller will be the girls now with one another in their tumbling stunts, and Carleton & Tate have an act called "Opera and Uproar." Archless & Venus will give posturing and painting de luxe.

It is hard to miss this truly interesting and enjoyable offering. Tickets are selling fast. Make reservations early. Tel. 261.

In view of the ever-increasing subscription list it is advisable to have your name placed on it with your name and address only. It is the same privilege that she or he enjoys.

"Experience," the big allegorical photoplay which, in play form, had record breaking runs in New York, Boston and other large cities, will be the feature attraction at the Merrimack Square Theatre for Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

Richard Barthelmess, a powerful story of a materialistic husband, a love hungry wife, a philosopher and a child. The story opens on the rugged coast of eastern Canada and the scene then shifts to the metropolis of New York City, where the husband, it is said, has been spared to make this lavish production and an unusual treat is promised all who see it.

Ruby DeRemer's production, "The Way Women Love," is one more stirring vehicle with the popular star in the leading role. In the production she wears the most costly furs ever used in a screen attraction. It is a mystery story adapted from the celebrated novel of Herman Landau's which appeared in magazine form under the name of "Behind Green Portieres." Miss DeRemer is supported by a capable cast headed by Walter Miller and the production is one which is said to be exceptionally high class.

The Sunday program at the Rialto calls for Wallace Reid in "Sick Bed," Enid Bennett in "Hairpins" and four acts of high class vaudeville.

ly known for his technique as a director and the announcement that he has supervised the production of "Experience" should create great demand on the part of admirers of his work to see the latest exemplification of his ability.

Richard Barthelmess, who plays the leading role, is popular with Paramount audiences. His mother was a prominent actress, and his dramatic talents were inherited from her. His first screen appearance was with Miss Nazimova in "War Brides." Later he was seen in "Florence Reed in the Eternal Sin." His first leading role was with Marguerite Clark in "The Valentine Girl." Then he played the leading role in five D. W. Griffith pictures.

Marjorie Daw, who plays the leading female role, is recognized as one of the brightest figures of the American screen. She began her screen career in "The Woman." She appeared in "My Pickett" in "Rebecca of Sunnybrook Farm" and later appeared with Douglas Fairbanks. Her charm and magnetic personality prompted Director Griffith to urge to cast her for the role of "Mabel" in "The Girl Friend" and she played the part most satisfactorily.

The story of "Experience" is most charming and entertaining. Youth leaves home, where Love and Hope are, to go to the city to meet Experience. He encounters Pleasure in the city and is dazzled by its brilliancy, asks Opportunity to continue to Page Five.

"The Case of Becky" Is Diagnosed as Dementia Praecox

CONSTANCE BINNEY, SHE'S HEROINE OF "THE CASE OF BECKY," A POOR ATTEMPT TO HANDLE A PSYCHIC PROBLEM IN A PHOToplay. GLENN HUNTER IS THE JUVENILE LEADING MAN

BY JAMES W. DEAN
NEW YORK, Oct. 15.—The wings grow on Dorothy's clavicles until Prof. Balzano shines 18-candlepower plate-glass diamond in her eyes. Then she becomes Becky with naughty impulses.

The Prof. was R. H. P.—meaning Bachelor of Hokus Pokus.

He mesmerized Dorothy's mother and she followed diamond while the Professor used Dorothy as sideshow exhibit to gather in shekels at black towns.

Mommer died and Dorothy did ten miles on Dixie Highway to old home-stead. Rustic swain gave her drink of water and pair of colt eyes.

Then he pulled fox paw. He gave her diamond and that caused her autohypnotism. She missed on two mental cylinders and threw convulsion fit.

Dr. Emerson took her to his nut garage for brain overhauling. Found crossed wires and by a ointment. Dorothy was his own daughter. Newspaper clipping kept in Houdini-proof tin box said so.

Prof. Bamboozo was good at second-story work. Climbed in Dorothy's room and shook mean diamond at her. Discovered: "Meet muth at the hotel when the cuckoo cuckoo nine," he hissed.

Dr. Emerson took Dorothy to in-physical laboratory and whiplashed twelve signs of the zodiac on her while half-oyed swain held her illy-white.

Dorothy completely equilibrated. Becky and naughty impulses evaporate into nothingness whence they came. The cuckoo cucked in vain. The Prof. 35-calibered his left temple.

Dorothy and swain vision vine-covered cottage with mock-orange hedge and double-exposure children running around it. Fade-out.

This film is called "The Case of Becky." Constance Binney is Becky. Montagu Love the Prof. and Glenn Hunter the swain. The moral is: If "you have two personalities swallow one quart raisins, one bushel cracked corn and three yeast cakes and forget about one of them. If this doesn't mean anything to you, it doesn't mean to me. I've attended two thousand lunacy trials. Eleven hundred of them were dramatic. Credit for bringing the organization to his southern colleagues he said:

Vera Cruz Officials Lift Embargo

MEXICO CITY, Oct. 15.—Officials of the state of Vera Cruz have lifted the embargo they placed on the properties of the Aguila Oil Co., last Saturday, following legal proceedings brought by the firm, a British corporation. The embargo was ordered as a security for back taxes totalling 3,000,000 pesos, which, it was alleged, had not been paid.

The center of the disturbance was 2865 miles southwest of Chicago, probably in the Pacific ocean, according to the bureau. The first tremor was recorded at 12.27 a. m., the maximum strength at 12.54 a. m., and the final tremor at 3 a. m.

tunity to wait, but the latter declines. At the Franklin Club, pleasure introduced Youth to Beauty, Wealth, Fashion and Intoxication. Youth's mother dies and Love wires him the news, but the telegram is intercepted by Temptation who holds Youth in thrall. Youth's money vanishes and his friends desert him. Chance offers Youth an opportunity to replenish his fortune at the gaming table, and Youth is ruined.

He obtains work as a waiter in a dance hall but is discharged on an accusation of theft. Disgusted and ill, he falls prey to Vice and Habit who show him how to use drugs. His teeth, skin and nerves are affected by the house of Wealth. On the way, he hears singing in a church and repents. The rest of the story is exceptionally appealing and to divulge it here would be to detract from the pleasure of those who are to witness the photoplay.

Manager Nelson has also booked a comedy, "The International News," and a "Prima" picture for the first half of the week.

The usual excellent Sunday program will be carried out tomorrow afternoon and evening.

UNITED STATES MARINE BAND CONCERT

Great interest is being evinced among lovers of good music in Lowell in the season's opening attraction, the appearance on Oct. 23 of the United States Marine band at the Strand. Holding as it does, an international reputation as one of the most highly trained organizations of its kind in the country, the band has been used for years as the official musical unit in national affairs at Washington, D. C., and it is with keen anticipation that Lowell awaits its coming.

Credit for bringing the organization to the city is due the Lowell Rotary club who is presenting the band as a benefit for the Lowell Boys' club. The band will give both an afternoon and evening performance.

With every one of its scarlet coated members a citizen of the United States, either native born or naturalized, the United States Marine band is in this respect the most unique of all the great musical organizations of this country.

In the fall of 1911 it was only at intervals of from two to twenty days that the band had been heard outside of Washington. But one hot summer afternoon, while congress was in session, the band was giving one of its regular concerts on the east front of the capitol. Among the spectators who had stopped as usual to listen to the music was the late Senator "Hob" Taylor of Tennessee. Turning "Boys I want my people down in Tennessee to hear that band and I know you would like to have your home folks hear them, too. Come and join me in a request to President Taft to give the band permission to go." The result was that permission was gladly given and the enthusiasm with which the band was received throughout "Dixie Land" has led to similar requests from senators and representatives for tours each year.

President Harding has taken the position that such tours, being made at a season of the year when the band's absence from Washington will not interfere with any of its official duties, afford much pleasure to those citizens who do not have the privilege of hearing their band in Washington. That the visits of the band not only tend to promote the patriotic pride of our people, but that their concerts are also of educational value.

TWO LAWRENCE AVIATORS INJURED AT HAVERHILL

HAVERHILL, Oct. 15.—Peter Pomerleau, an aviator, and his mechanician, Joseph A. Harrison, both of Lawrence, were seriously injured yesterday afternoon when engine trouble developed during a flight and their seaplane struck two trees as Pomerleau tried to glide and land in the Merrimack river.

Pomerleau suffered fractures of the right thigh and left leg and Harrison is complaining of injury to his back.

It is feared he is hurt internally. The seaplane, which was valued at $6000, was almost wrecked.

The two men had been making flights here daily for the last three weeks. During the summer they made flights from a summer park between Lawrence and Lowell.

Yesterday afternoon they flew lower than usual. After the machine passed over the city proper it headed for Riverside. When over the high school stadium engine trouble developed, Pomerleau then headed the seaplane toward the Merrimack river to land. The machine in gliding struck a huge oak tree on Riverside avenue. It then turned partially over and struck another tree on the edge of the river bank, 30 feet below. Here it stuck. The two occupants were pinned in the wreckage, but were quickly extricated by the high school football players and others who saw the accident.

Pomerleau and Harrison were rushed in an auto to the Gale hospital, where their injuries were dressed. They were both reported on the danger list last night.

IN COLONIAL HALL

Entertainment for Benefit of College Endowment Fund

Under the auspices of the Lowell Wellesley club and as a benefit for the Wellesley college endowment fund, "Cranford," a three-act sketch, was presented at Colonial hall last evening, before an appreciative audience of more than 600. The affair was under the general direction of a committee composed of Miss Sheneen, Miss Grinnell, Lawrence, Miss Eddie Bradt and Mrs. Lewis MacBrayne. The cast of characters, every one taken most capably by high school students of the 1920 class, was as follows:

Miss Jessie Brown, a new resident, Alice Hardy

Miss Poile, a friend to Miss Jenkyns, Helen Reed

Jennie, a country girl, Arpene der Manuelian

Following the presentation of the play, dancing was enjoyed to music supplied by members of the first hour English class of 1920, taught by Miss Alice Stickney at the high school.

KITTREDGE COUNCIL HEARD BLIND ARTISTS

Paul Kittredge council, A.A.R.I., held an important meeting on Thursday evening, with a large attendance of members. In the absence of President Kane, Mr. John Payne presided and announced that a concert would be given in Associate hall Sunday evening, under the auspices of the Traynor association, for the benefit of the orphan children of Ireland.

The members expressed their intention that a concert should be made to make the concert a success. Mr. John Clowrey gave a brief address dwelling upon the splendid work the council had done in raising funds to aid the distress in Ireland, and to promote the cause of Irish freedom. He said Kittredge council had raised more money than any other council in the city.

A feature of the meeting was the presence of Mr. McKey and his sister, the two blind artists who are to appear in a concert at Colonial hall during the coming week. They sang several songs with fine effect. Songs were also rendered by the O'Brien brothers, and Miss Kenney gave a recitation. The meeting adjourned to meet a week from next Thursday night.

PENN. PAYS TRIBUTE TO SEN. KNOX

PENNSYLVANIA, Oct. 15.—Pennsylvania today paid tribute to the memory of Senator Philander C. Knox at funeral services in the Valley Forge Memorial chapel. Virtually every republican state and county leader, including Senator Penrose and Governor Sprout, planned to attend the services and a delegation of 60 members, headed by Vice President Coolidge, was expected from Washington.

$10,000 FIRE LOSS IN LAWRENCE MILL

LAWRENCE, Oct. 15.—A bad blaze in the finished nappling department of the print works of the Pacific mills early yesterday afternoon did more than $10,000 damage. The fire was probably caused by a spark from a passing locomotive.

It was quickly discovered by a mill second hand, James McAlpin. It was found in rolls of cloth. He attacked it with a water bucket and hand chemical.

The mill fire department was summoned and the fire was fought half an hour by it. Later the city department assisted in the battle.

At the request of the mill officials, the fire department did not call the police, as the blaze had been extinguished few workers in the mill knew anything was amiss.

FINDING JOBS FOR THE UNEMPLOYED

The unemployment situation is increasing the Lowell Humane society's burden, according to Agent Charles F. Richardson. The society has many young men, minors, placed in its care and it becomes Mr. Richardson's duty to look after their general welfare.

Usually the first thing the boys must secure is a job and with Mr. Richardson's assistance work has always been forthcoming, but of late it is not an easy proposition to find employment.

The Humane society agents state that the point of beginning, Compton street, is 162.82 square feet, more or less.

VOTERS NOT TO BLAME

All the time the trouble here isn't with the charter. It is plainly with the people. It doesn't make any difference what charter you have, really, so long as the voters don't set on the proper basis in choosing the men to run the shop. This doesn't sound gracious or pleasant, but it's absolutely true and we all know it—so why dodge the truth? If the new charter offered the slightest hope that it would improve the voter's chances of exhibiting a little wisdom, one might argue for it, but how does it seem to you to do any such thing?—Courtesy—Citizen Catches.

The above is a sample of the unreasoning drive the Courier-Citizen has been dealing out occasionally, despite all the facts and arguments to the contrary.

In the opinion of our neighbor, the people alone are to blame as they do not elect the right kind of officials and hence, according to this authority, no change in charter will accomplish any improvement in our city government.

We say that the people are not to blame for the deficiencies in our system of government. They have to select from the candidates who present themselves and the lure of the salary has brought the politicians into the game so that all others, even the most desirable business men, are shut out.

The politician with a machine behind him carries off the commissionership, and as each commissioner is the head of one or more departments, therefore, we have a government chiefly by politicians. Nor are we prepared to hold the members of the municipal council entirely responsible for the shortcomings of our government.

The system is more to blame than the men and unless the present charter be abolished there can never be any improvement in our city government.

On the contrary, it will continue to grow worse. The new charter is the result of an honest effort by a body of business men to provide a remedy for present conditions.

The chief opponents of the charter are the officials, who think they are more secure under the present charter than they would be under the new charter. That is not a reason why the new charter should be rejected. Heads of departments should be removable at the will of the mayor or the city council when they fail to show satisfactory results in their departments.

This will be the rule under the new charter if adopted.

If charters are of no use, then constitutions are equally worthless, for a charter such as we are to pass upon next Tuesday, is merely offered as the organic law of the city, setting forth the framework and plan of our city government. If, as the Courier-Citizen claims, a charter is of no use, then the same charge will apply to the constitution of the United States.

The charge that city government is more a matter of men than of charters, is true only when the men are of the highest integrity and capability. For men of a different type it is necessary to have a practical system from which they cannot depart, without leaving themselves open to criticism for violation of the law.

The new charter will give us a council of fifteen men at $4,500 a year, whereas the present gives us but four, in addition to the mayor, at a cost of $10,000.

The failure of the present charter is shown in the fact that in ten years, only twelve men served as commissioners in addition to the three who filled the office of mayor. Does that give the people a chance?

The larger board will give us men from various walks of life, will give each ward representation and will install an executive with power to see that the city's business is safeguarded at every point. These are a few of the reasons why we favor the new charter.

The present defective system far more than the men in office is responsible for the defects in our city government. The people are not to blame for that over which they have no control. We believe the citizens want good government and it is only a defective charter that stands in their way. They will have an opportunity to rectify that next Tuesday.

TO BOOM BUSINESS

And now the Rotarians of the country are to take a hand in the revival of the optimistic spirit necessary to the real revival of business.

They are to put out 75,000 posters all over the country with slogans and statements showing the upper trend and steady improvement in business. The United States cabinet will assist in this work and as it assumes a national aspect, its importance should not be underestimated.

In 15,000 towns and cities these posters will convey messages of confidence and cheer as the heralds of better times not coming but right here. The effort is to pull the wheel of business out of the rut and the Rotarians ask everybody to join in the supreme effort to get every place of business to start running full blast.

The Rotarians' houses in the middle of the state report a steady improvement in business, which is but the result of better sales by the retailers.

There can be no denying the fact that many manufacturers have had heavy losses during the past six months by trying to do business in the face of a failing market. Its most important message is: In many cases they had to dispose of their products at prices that were not to be cured.

That is true of nearly all diseases.

As this, however, is closing their factories and turning their employees out on the street.

They were confident that conditions

HOW GERMANY PAYS

Germany signs an agreement, with France, to deliver $1,800,000,000 worth of building materials.

That is the way Germany ultimately will pay her indemnity. Allies have the gold erased and want Germany to pay in gold. But there isn't enough gold in the world to permit that.

French makers of building materials will suffer from the flood of German goods. War is always a loss, even to the victor.

The new charter has absolutely nothing that favors contract labor any more than does the present charter. Contracts are necessary on bridges and buildings, pumps for the water department, and jobs of that kind.

We surmise that most people will agree that it is the logical thing to have "-----" whether in the schools or out of them, under the control of the board of health, the body that has full legal authority to enforce its orders.

Can you imagine Valley Forge or Gettysburg for sale to the highest bidder? Well, the British government has placed Runnymede on the market as "Lot No. 8 of the Crown Lands." But the government needs the money to help release the prevalent distress.

Ward representation under the new charter will turn the city government back to the people.

Hyde Park's fight against exorbitant street railway fares may soon bear fruit.

The perfect salesman is one who can sell you garden seeds when you need snowshoes.

SEEN AND HEARD

The cheapest looking thing at a bargain counter is a man.

Russian robes are quoted at a nickel a thousand if you do your own hauling.

The mouth of the Amazon is over 10 miles wide. The Amazons were a race of women.

The leaves are falling and Nature is getting into its coat of variegated autumn yellow, but I notice that the beauty of Columbus park gardens does not fade, and visitors still go there to admire the beautiful greenery and flowers hanging on many of the bushes.

The Fly Killer

A man passed through a country village pushing a wheelbarrow full of sand. This sand he was selling at a nickel a bag, telling people that it was a sure fly killer. Purchasing a bag, a stout old dame asked him how it should be used. "First catch a fly," exclaimed the vendor, "then tickle it under its chin with a straw, and when it opens its mouth throw a handful of this famous fly poison down its throat and the result will be that the fly will instantly choke and die." "What?" exclaimed the old lady, "while I was doing that I could have squashed it under my foot six times over?" "Yes," replied the sandman, unconcernedly, "such is life, such is life."

Papa Didn't Count

"The war, prohibition, taxes, and a new president have turned everything topsy turvy that we are losing our sense of proportion and are getting like a lot of children," said William J. Bryan recently. "A great many people I come in contact with nowadays remind me of little Muriel. Muriel the other day came running to her mother, crying: 'O-o-o, mamma! Did you hear the ladder fall down just now?' 'No, dear. How did the ladder happen to fall down?' 'Well, papa was washing the window and it slipped, and when it fell it broke three flower pots. I told daddy you'd be cross.' 'O, dear,' cried the mother. 'I hope your father hasn't hurt himself!' 'I don't think he has yet,' replied the child, 'he was hanging onto the window sill when I came away to tell you about the flower pots.'

When October Calls

Just received a letter from an old-time friend. Way back in the Country Near the river bend.

Sam is getting lonesome. So he writes to me. Says he wants to take a jaunt Through the woods to see

What the game is doing. These October days Say he wants to run a bit. Where the partridge plays.

Wants to see a fox run. Through the pasture bars. Takes a day with Gyp the hound. Would beat a trip to Mars.

Says he knows a rabbit den. Where they gambol free! Used to be some coons there, too! (Just 'twixt you and me!)

Game birds, thick and slightly. Over yonder glen! Ripping sport is waiting For the wing-shot men.

Think I'll get my outfit Ready for a trip. Through the woods with "Save-shot" Sam And my dog Gyp.

Nothing like the country. When the days are fine, Trekking through God's acres Just like they were mine!

City folks, you're missing All the fun I know. If you never ramble Where the hunters go!

Sport you'll find a plenty. With the gun and dogs. Where you hit the woodlands In your khaki tags.

Good old month—October! Welcome every year! Glad indeed to hear the call And answer: "Here!"

MAN ABOUT TOWN

I wonder how many Lowell citizens know that the tall, young, dark-complexioned man behind the counter in a certain Middlesex street, dry goods store about half-way between Gorham street and the depot, is a full-bogged attorney and counselor-at-law. I made this discovery yesterday: Philip Samuels, salesman and owner of two lively stores in Lowell, is none other than Philip Samuels, attorney and counselor-at-law, of room 604, Carney building, 43 Tremont street, Boston. There is also a branch office in Waltham. Mr. Samuels explained to me, when I dropped in to buy a necklace that he was a graduate from Northeastern college, also from Iowa State university, and studied three years at the Boston Y.M.C.A. law school. He has no intention of giving up the practice of law, but just at present he says he must attend to his growing business, which keeps him on the jump. As for the law, it can wait, he says, though he will resume practice before long. Mr. Samuels was attorney for the Boston Journeyman Tailors' union during the latter's strike.

Jurymen who are "not working" during the week up at the courthouse breathe sighs of relief every Friday morning, when most of them are released from duty until the following Monday. This week has not been very busy for most of the members of the October panel, and "Home, James" sounds mighty good on a Friday morning.

If the district representative leaders think they can change the old republican district south of Lowell without some noise being heard in protest, they are much mistaken. I am told that a movement is underway to have the larger towns four years and the smaller ones two consecutive years' representation. At the present time, town like Carlisle, for instance, can have a representative but once in turn with the other towns in the district. Now it is desired that Carlisle be allowed to have a representative for two years in succession, if the incumbent fails the required bill. The movement can but benefit the small towns. There is some curiosity to know just why some of them are said to be against the plan. Are they afraid the balance of power in the larger towns will be increased?

As for the democrats and their platform of 16 to 1, they did not have the money to hold very many torchlight parades and hence, what funds they had were devoted to hiring halls and carriages for the speakers and burning a little red fire along the way to the hall, while many thousands of spectators lined the sidewalks. It might be said that the republicans held fully 16 torchlight parades for every one held by the democrats. Mark Hanna's money was freely distributed among the parading organizations and great were the "feuds" provided by caterers at the close of the big parades.

Opponents of the bill last night contend that the house already was an unwieldy body and that it would function less efficiently with an increased membership. Chairman Siegel and Representative Larsen of Georgia, a democratic member of the committee, pleaded for the measure, while Representatives Fairfield and Rankin, democrat, Mississippi, directed the attack against it. Party lines were disregarded in the final vote.

Announcement by Representative Mondell, the republican leader, that although he had opposed an increase in the size of the house at the last session, he favored the Siegel bill, brought criticism from several republicans opposed to the measure. Stephen Cooper of Wisconsin and Beedy of Maine being particularly emphatic in their remarks.

Notre Dame Reunion

Says the old Sun: "One of the happiest events in the history of Notre Dame academy, Lowell's oldest and most distinguished institution of learning for young ladies, was recorded yesterday afternoon on the occasion of the annual reunion of former graduates and pupils when dignified matrons bearing Time's silvery touch and comely maidens flushed with the golden bloom of youth came together regardless of the flight of years as children of that devoted mother Notre Dame, their Alma Mater. Graduates of 40 years were there and recounted reminiscences with the merry young sub graduate while comrades of long ago joined hearts and hands once more after separation of years. Not in the pleasant exercises attending the reunion were the absent ones, those passed away, forgotten for all were remembered with sweet sorrow by those with whom they once were prepared by zealous nuns for Life's great battles."

"It was on the occasion of the 30th anniversary of the founding of the academy that the first reunion of pupils was held in 1892, and at that time not many were present, though those who were there traveled far to attend."

Notre Dame academy is now passing its 69th milestone and is daily growing in importance and extending its work in the training of young ladies for home life, for business and for higher institutions of learning.

Ladies of Hatch's Box Shop

Says the old Sun: "The young ladies of Hatch's box factory know how to conduct a social party in a most delightful way.

"Last night their friends enjoyed their hospitality and took part in the merry dance which the young ladies held in Prescott hall. It was a happy gathering and the 100 couples present enjoyed themselves immensely. Hibbard's orchestra furnished music for the dancing, which lasted from 8 o'clock until 2 o'clock this morning. The officers were: General manager, Annie T. McLaughlin; assistant, Mary J. Callahan; floor director, Edward H. Burke; assistant, John J. King; chief aid, John J. Flanagan; aids, Thomas Callahan, Henry J. Carroll, Terrence Flood, Michael J. Finley, Joseph Maguire, M. J. McNamara, Joseph V. Meany, George F. Lynch, John J. McSorley, Frank Kiana, Martin J. Crowe, John S. Brophy.

—RECEPTION COMMITTEE, ELIZABETH F. HOWARD, ELIZABETH A. RONK, MARGARET A. ROURKE, ALICE V. ROURKE, GERTRUDE C. SHAW, MABEL V. HOBBS, ROSE P. BENWICK, MARY W. SULLIVAN, MARGARET KANA, TREASURER; PATRICK J. F. MOONEY, ASSISTANT TREASURER.

Pastor Greeted

From the old Sun:

"Rev. Michael O'Brien, rector of St. Patrick's church, was formally welcomed home from his sojourn in Europe by the pupils of Notre Dame academy yesterday afternoon. A musical program was a feature of the occasion and the reverend father told of things he had seen on his travels."

Free Landing Abolished

From a report of the meeting of the common council of 27 members, the following is taken:

"The resolution assenting to the act abolishing the free landing in the rear of the police station was passed."

"A joint order was adopted inviting the city councils of Manchester, Concord and Nashua, to play a friendly game of ball with the Lowell city council."

The free landing was abolished to permit the erection of an addition to the Carpet mill. Others were abandoned later until very few remain. There is one on First street at Varnum park.

Five New Lawyers

From the old Sun:

"Five new lawyers were admitted to the bar this morning by Judge Sherman at the session of the superior court. The successful young men are John J. Farley, William P. O'Brien, Michael E. Corlett, Joseph Moscato, Joseph Donovan and John M. Mahoney, all of Lowell."

Bill to Increase Number Defeated — Another Calling for Cut Beaten

WASHINGTON, Oct. 15.—The house

recorded its opposition last night to any increase in its membership, recommitting to the census committee by a vote of 140 to 142 the Siegel bill to increase its size from 435 to 460 members.

The vote was taken after nine hours of debate and wrangling over parliamentary procedure.

Prior to recommitting the bill, the house rejected, 140 to 146, an amendment by Representative Burton, republican, California, to authorize reapportionment without any increase in membership. Another amendment, offered by Representative Timchuk, republican, Massachusetts, to decrease the membership to 425 was also rejected.

"A largely attended rally was that of the Boston & Maine Gold club in

Kid Lewis Wins Bout

LONDON, Oct. 15.—Ted "Kid" Lewis, middleweight champion of England, last night defeated John Basham in the 10th round of what was to have been a 20-round bout.

The fight was for the championship. Basham's seconds ended the terrible punishment which Lewis inflicted on him by tossing a towel into the ring in acknowledgement of defeat. Lewis outclassed his man from the start.

Basham received a badly battered ear, from which the blood flowed freely, the 10th round, a right to the jaw sent him down for the count of nine, the gong saving him.

BOSTON, Oct. 15.—Paul Reed of Framingham was given the decision over Louis Bogash of Bridgewater in their 10-round bout at the Commercial A.C. show in Mechanics building last night.

The Indian Second

AND O. M. I. CADETS

The Indian seconds and the O.M.I. Cadets will meet on the Fair grounds tomorrow afternoon, to decide the football championship of the city in their class.

The teams have practiced hard all week and both Indians today were confident of carrying off the spoils tomorrow. It is expected that a large crowd will turn out to witness the contest.

The Indian seconds went through their final practice this afternoon on the Fair grounds. Young Guerla and Conner, who played such a wonderful game last Sunday will be in their positions again. Indian second players are requested to report at Manhattan Club Sunday at 2 o'clock.

FOOTBALL NOTES

Tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 at Highland Park the strong Oakleaves of Cambridge and the Trojans of Belmont will play in a battle array. Because of the intense rivalry between the warriors of Centralville and the Trojans, a great game is expected.

The following Trojan players are expected to meet the Oakleaves at the corner of Chestnut and Highland streets for practice: King, Laramie, Whittlehage, McMahon, Ross, F. Kelley, Soule, Rancourt, Cushing, McCloud, Fournier, O'Laughlin, Yates, Dufresne, Watterson, Kilborn, Kelleher.

The Wanderers' second team defeated the Indians Wednesday by the score of 6 to 0. The winning team presented the trophy to the Indians.

On account of the great rivalry that exists between the two schools there was much interest centered on the game. The Howe team, soon after the initial kickoff, showed its superiority over the Mitchell players and scored almost at will. To Capt. Cassidy, O'Sullivan, and Kander should go much credit for their victory, while Beach and Summers played a sterling game for the losers.

The summary:

Howe—Jacobs 1c, McAllister 1t, Harrington, McAllister 1t

Mitchell—Brophy, Larratt 1c, W. McAllister 1t

Score: Howe 6, Mitchell 12. Touchdowns: Cassidy 4, Kander 3, O'Sullivan 2, Beach 2, Summers. Goals from touchdowns: Cassidy, Summers. Time: Four 10-minute periods. Referee: Cochran. Umpire: Mitchell. Field Judge: Mitchell.

Lowell High School Meets

Strong Manchester High School Team

This morning at 11 o'clock the Lowell high school football squad left Lowell for Manchester, N. H., where they met the strong high school team of that city at 3 o'clock this afternoon. Practically the entire squad of 75 boys assembled at the annex at 10:30 and left by motor truck and automobiles.

Manchester this year is represented by one of the fastest teams that it has had in years. This fact is well brought out by the decisive manner in which Manchester defeated Keene, N. H., 31-7 on Columbus day. Coach Clegg, however, has, during the past week, performed a defense against Manchester's high flying passing game, and is confident that the game will be hard fought. He has given the local backs orders to watch Vinton, the speedy Manchester end who usually is the recipient of their forward passes.

New forward pass plays have also been tried out by the local team this week, and the combination pass of Linton to Condon, who returns to the game today, is in working order once more. Last year at Lawrence it was a pass of 20 yards from Linton to Condon that brought Lowell within scoring distance and had a great influence in bringing about victory.

The Lowell line is slowly developing into one of the strongest in years. Today the line will consist of Rowland, right tackle; McNamee, right guard; Dodge, center; Winters, left end, and Allyn, left tackle. The average weight from tackle to tackle is between 165 and 170 pounds. The ends will be taken care of by Condon at left end and Gleason at right. Condon held down that position last year, but Gleason has been shifted from the backfield to end. He is developing fast and is one of the surest tacklers on the team. That end will be taken care of by Captain Linton at full back. Dan Hilton at left half, and Ralph Willard at right halfback. Linton and Normandine are just now getting into shape and are proving to be great ground gainers. Although no predictions were made, a victory this afternoon was expected.

Sam S. Willaman, coach of the East Technical high school team of Cleveland, has written for the Sun a series of articles on trick formations that can be used by high schools and other boys' teams to materially strengthen their play.

These stories will appear one a day and will be illustrated by diagram.

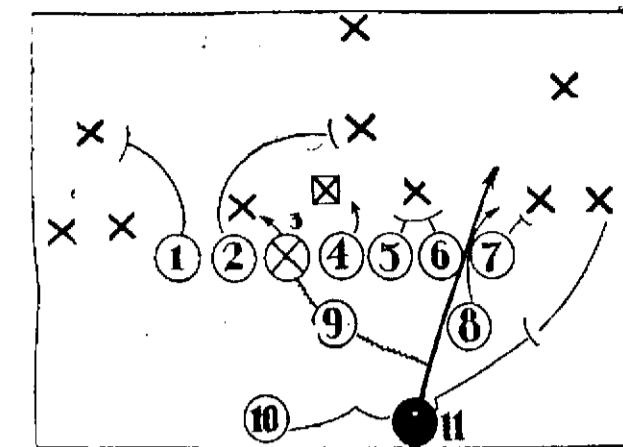

Willaman has done amazing things with his team this year. Last year he won the city high school championship with ease, scoring 423 points to opponents' 23 in 11 games. The team won every game played in the east, most of them by big scores.

Sam S. Willaman of Toledo, East Tech went to the Pacific coast and played Everett (Wash.) high on New Year's day, holding these western champions to a 16-7 score after a hard railroad trip.

He is a very scholastic team, with or without a coach, to study Willaman's stories. The first one, today, is a buck formation.

Plays to Strengthen Your Football Team

STRAIGHT BUCK PLAY

BY S. S. WILLAMAN
Coach at East Tech High School, Cleveland

The success of all football plays depends upon each man knowing exactly what he is expected to do and doing it to the best of his ability.

The buck formation shown above is practically the same as that used by Princeton and other big eastern teams. It contains both the unbalanced line and the backfield. Circles mark the offensive players, crosses the defensive.

The play diagramed is a very strong straight buck. On this play, which is just inside your opponent's tackle. No. 8 helps No. 7 take out the tackle. No. 5 and No. 6 drive back the guard. No. 4 blocks the center and No. 3 blocks the guard.

No. 1 and No. 2 go through and hit the fullback and the half. No. 10 crosses just back of No. 11 and hits the end who has charged in.

No. 9, the quarter, takes the ball from center and gets it to No. 11, the fullback, so that No. 11 can plunge through the opening.

Numbers 9 and 10 can run the ends on the strong side and numbers 7 and 8 can run the other end.

Numbers 10 and 11 are in a position to forward pass.

In working out other plays for this formation, follow the detailed diagram shown, and remember that every man should have something definite to do on every play.

NAVY CAPTAIN IS STAR KICKER

On the Other Hand

To Capt. in going to manage a team in the West Indies. A young fellow, you know, just getting along, as a manager, needs all the practice he can get.

A Frenchman claims the world's kissing championship. We don't know. Carpenter got a powerful smack.

Another new feature was added to the long list of training stunts around the country a few days ago when Coach Dawson of Nebraska inaugurated boxing as a means of football conditioning.

The team members are supplied with the padded mitts and he requires all the padded mitts to wallop one another every day as a part of their regular practice.

"It develops speed and footwork," says Dawson, "as well as tuning up the brain and getting the men on their toes."

Don't be surprised to hear that Morich has gone into vaudeville. All the other stars are doing it.

A BIG JOB

"Boat California" is the slogan of the coast team on the blue and gold schedule. But the five squads—Stanford, Washington, Oregon, Washington State, and Oregon—will be bitten by a big chunk in adopting such a slogan, for all but three of the old Sunkist regulars are back.

However, there are two new coaches who will have to be figured out for possible surprises. One is Frank Bishow, a University of Washington graduate, who is returning to his alma mater to lift his team out of last year's cellar.

And the other is Gene Van Ghent, former Wisconsin star, who is going to turn the boys up and down the field at Stanford.

TEACHING 'EM HOW TO SPEAK IN PUBLIC

Dale Carnegie, the founder and author of the United Y.M.C.A. school's course in public speaking, will talk at the Lowell Y.M.C.A. on Tuesday, October 15th at 8 o'clock. All men are invited to hear him on that evening.

The association will not attempt to train Lowell men to deliver Anthony's orations over the dead body of Caesar or Decimus Webster's Reply to Haynes; but this course will train them to think on their feet and talk convincingly to one man or a thousand. Many men can manage a business interview with marked ability, but are lost the moment they attempt to stand on their feet and speak to a group. The Y.M.C.A. is providing an opportunity for such men to get together one night a week and be drilled in putting their talks across before an audience.

WOMAN AGAIN QUESTIONS VETERANS' PREFERENCE

PRES. HARDING

NEW YORK, Oct. 14.—Another chapter of the correspondence between President Harding and Miss Ella L. Fried concerning the coming conference on limitation of armament was made public today by "Miss Fried," who added that the president had misread her name, which really is Mrs. Ella L. Fried.

The president made public on Wednesday a letter, in response to one from her, in which he gave his first extended public outline of what he hoped to see achieved at the conference.

Mrs. Fried said she had written a reply urging him to propose a reduction by one-half of present armaments. The letter read:

"I asked you what you meant by 'reasonable limitation.' You say you mean 'something practicable.' That is exactly the same thing you said before in other words. Synonyms are not definitions."

"Permit me to ask you whether you consider a reduction of the world's military burdens by one-half reasonable or practicable? If every one of the nations at the conference agrees to reduce its armament one-half, their relative strength would remain as great as before. That is clear, I hope."

"Then why not suggest one-half reduction? When that has been done, the women of the world will furnish you further suggestions as to what is reasonable and practicable."

Mrs. Fried, aged 23, lives in Pittsburgh. She has been serving as a speaker for the citizens' disarmament committee.

One of its organizers, Edward A. Pierce, testified the stock was given to Mr. McManus and that he was informed to do the work for $2,500. Records of the company offered in evidence, showed the company officials expected it to cost them $25,500 and yield a profit of $16,000.

It was brought out that Welfare Commissioner Coler asked for a city appropriation of $62,500 for this work before the bid was received. He denied that the two similar amounts were anything but a coincidence.

Judge Enright Wants Employers and Not Clerks in Liquor Cases

Proprietor of Grocery and Fruit Store Fined $150 in District Court

Following the issue of an order by the local court some time ago through which the police were instructed to arrest the proprietor of a store where liquor was found, the first offender under this ruling was summoned before Judge Enright in the local district court today.

The police had been raiding stores andね been saloons and bailing into court men who claimed to have been clerks in those places and not responsible for the presence of the liquor, when several weeks ago the court ruled that the proprietors of the premises should be arrested on warrant and charged with the offense, the clerks really not being the violators of the prohibition laws. Instead of the police liquor squad sent out to obey the instruction of the court, and after making a violent raid on a store where they only found the clerk, a warrant was issued for the owner.

Peter Kowalski, proprietor of a grocery and fruit store on Lakeview avenue, today was fined $150 for illegal keeping of liquor with intent to

MOTORCYCLISTS HURT

Accident This Afternoon in Motorcyle Meet at Golden Cove Track

The first annual motorcycle races at Golden Cove park this afternoon, were marred by an accident immediately after the finish of the second event, which resulted in one racer of the commission in one racer considering a probable fracture of the leg and several others receiving minor injuries.

Napoleon St. Hilaire of Lowell, had just been declared the winner of the motorcycle and side-car race and was leading the other contestants in an exhibition ride around the track when suddenly the cycles operated by Leo Dube of Lowell, and Harold Fulton of Tewksbury, violently collided while making the south turn of the track, considered the most treacherous on the course. The two machines made a complete somersault, landing at the bottom of a ditch too, on impact, the driver of the sidecar with Dube was Albert Cormier, while in Fulton's side car, Fulton escaped unharmed, but Dube and Cormier were badly cut about the face.

Foreman On Highway Construction Job Brutally Murdered—Alleged Murderer Arrested in Holyoke

Charged with one of the most brutal murders in the history of Middlesex county, Tony Salvato, 35 years old and single, a slate road worker employed on construction in Littleton, was arrested this morning at the home of a friend in Holyoke. He is accused of inveigling Paulos Coe, foreman of the highway construction job, into a lonely road leading to the Westford-Littleton line, where, the police allege, he attacked the foreman with both an axe and a revolver.

The murder is alleged to have been committed two days ago, and Coe's strange absence from work resulted in a search that led to the discovery of his mangled body.

When found, the body of Coe was in terrible shape. His head was crushed in from repeated blows with both the blade and blunt side of an axe, the police allege. The foreman had also been shot twice from behind, both bullets entering the body in vital places, it is claimed.

The disappearance of Salvato, a workman with whom Coe had had trouble, it is said, led to a search for the man by the police, who located him this morning in Holyoke.

REV. FR. FIDELIS DEAD CHARTER DISCUSSED BOARD OF PUBLIC SERVICE AS PROVIDED IN NEW CHARTER

Boston Man Left Episcopal Church for Catholic—Became Famous Passionist

CHICAGO, Oct. 15.—Very Rev. James Kent Stone, Fr. Fidelis, a famous Passionist preacher, died here yesterday at the age of 51. Fr. Fidelis was born in Boston, a son of Rev. Dr. John S. Stone, rector of Christ church, Brooklyn, and later head of the Episcopal seminary at Cambridge.

Fr. Fidelis was educated at Harvard college and German universities. He was professor of Latin 1862-1867, and later president at Kenyon college, Ohio. He was ordained in the Protestant Episcopal church in 1867, and received his degree of D.D. from Racine college, Wisconsin. He was made president of Hollart college, Geneva, N. Y., in 1885, but resigned from that position and became a Passionist in 1885. He became a convert to the Roman Catholic church a year later.

Fr. Fidelis was ordained a priest in the Paulist order in 1872, and became a Passionist more than years later. He was appointed to establish the Passionist order in Argentina, and during 12 years in Buenos Aires founded seven monasteries. He returned to the United States in 1885 and became consultant of American Passionists in 1892, master of novices in 1892, and provincial in 1905.

As Prof. Stone he enlisted in the Civil War as a private, and was awarded a commission for bravery in action. Fr. Fidelis was the first Catholic monk to speak from the pulpit of the Harvard Union church. He was the author of "The Initiation Headed."

Hearing of Defendants Indicted in Logan

LOGAN, W. Va., Oct. 15.—The hearing of defendants indicted in connection with the disorders along the Logan-Boone county border in August and September, was expected to be continued in circuit court today before Judge Robert Bland, to whom many of the men have made application for bail over the objection of the prosecution. The trial of 31 of those indicted following the disturbances which resulted in the deaths of 11 men, was continued last Wednesday until the January term. Judge Bland yesterday admitted to bail eight members of the United Mine Workers who were indicted among the 31, but refused bail to 12 other men.

Plan To Cut Rates On Coal Nullified

WASHINGTON, Oct. 15.—Efforts of the Union Pacific to reduce rates on coal between Wyoming mines and Utah cities to the level maintained prior to the general rate increase of 1920, were nullified by the interstate commerce commission today in the issuance of an order suspending the effective date of the schedule until Feb. 12, 1922. The rates were filed by the road to become effective Oct. 15 but the commission said that complaints before it to the effect that the reduction would be injurious to interstate transportation of coal required hearings and investigation.

WOMAN'S BODY FOUND IN CHARLES

ROSTON, Oct. 15.—Missing from her home since last Sunday evening, the body of Mrs. Alice Marion Bixby, wife of Dr. H. Oliver Bixby, a prominent dentist of 12 Saginaw street, North Cambridge, was found by a Harvard oarsman, yesterday in the Charles river, opposite the foot of Willard street, Cambridge. The body was floating face downward. The oarsman called to Edward Mills of 35 Willard street, who was standing on the shore, and the latter waded in about 20 feet and recovered the body to shore.

Officials of the Metropolitan district police at the Brighton station were notified and took charge of the body.

Dr. Albert August, who operated on Mrs. Bixby some time ago, was notified, and he positively identified the body as that of the missing woman.

FINED ONE DOLLAR

United States District Court Judge Said Lemuel Doctor Should Not Have Been Prosecuted.

BOSTON, Oct. 15.—After stating that he believed the defendant, Dr. Joseph A. Louron of Lowell, should never have been prosecuted, Judge Morton in the United States district court yesterday fined the defendant $1. The charge was selling morphine illegally for which the defendant was indicted by the federal grand jury and pleaded guilty to the indictment before the court yesterday, which imposed the court in giving him a maximum fine.

Dr. Louron has practiced medicine in Lowell before going to Canada and on his return he still believed that a physician had the right to prescribe drugs to patients without a license as was the case in the old days before the present law became operative. He told the court he had no intentions of violating the law.

Chairman Casey Before Highland Club—Supt. Molloy Asked to be Heard

Hon. James B. Casey last night addressed a meeting of the Highland club on the new charter which comes before the voters of this city for acceptance or rejection at the special election Tuesday. After the address quite a stir was caused when Hugh J. Molloy, superintendent of schools, asked the privilege of the floor to express his views on the subject.

Mr. Casey had just concluded his address and had asked if any present would like to ask questions, when Mr. Molloy made his request.

Mr. Casey was introduced by Orin H. Webster, who said the club deemed it advisable, considering the importance of the coming election, to have the features of the proposed charter explained.

Gratification was expressed by Mr. Casey that the opportunity to talk upon this subject was afforded him before the club. He said the charter to be voted upon represents the very best thought of 15 men who are not self-appointed and who have absolutely no selfish motives whatsoever and no political aspirations in the sections they have framed.

He said the average citizen of Lowell does not take the interest he should in the progress of the city, but that ward representation would have the effect of causing the people to take a more direct interest in the government.

Mr. Casey then went into a general discussion of the new charter with respect to the functions of the elected and executive heads of the city and the removal of certain office heads if their work is not satisfactory to the city council. He favored the large council in municipal affairs and in the school committee. He also attacked the emergency clauses for the borrowing of money now in vogue and favored the board of public service in the maintenance of some of the city departments, claiming it would systematize the work.

"The new charter is not a drive at any particular head in the city hall at the present time," said Mr. Casey. He continued: "We have some good men there and I hope they will remain.

Regarding the change advocated in medical inspection in the public schools, Mr. Casey said he thought a greater degree of efficiency could be had with the board of health in charge of the work. This, he said, would assume the form of a sub-department of school hygiene under a physician who would give all his time to the work. The district physicians and nurses would not be disturbed.

Supt. Molloy criticized the transfer of medical inspection work to the board of health, and said the increase in the membership of the school board would serve no good purpose. He also attacked other features of the proposed charter including the auditing or budget committee and argued that there is no reason for making a change.

Rebuttal, Mr. Casey said he was glad to find that Mr. Molloy's attack on the charter was general and not confined to the provisions touching the school department.

STEEL CORSETS. FOR POLICEMEN

NEW YORK, Oct. 15.—Steel corsets for bluecoats is the latest fashion in New York.

Ten pairs, it became known yesterday, had been purchased after tests had shown them bullet-proof. They will be distributed in emergencies to members of the bomb, Italian and loft squads.

Although they are intended primarily for use when barricaded criminals are to be attacked, they later may be introduced generally among the force. Made of silk, canvas and Norwegian steel, they weigh only six pounds.

"Such a communication as this," said Senator Walsh, "cannot assist in reviving business. Falling wages and notice of increased prices is not the tonic business needs at the present time. A communication of this character is bound to hold back the purchasing market, to disturb any business revival movement. Unsettled prices make for unsettled business."

"It seems to me we have a very serious and imperative duty to try and end deliberations on the tariff measure, which passed the house months ago and is now before the finance committee of the senate with no immediate hope of being reported to the senate.

"So long as we hold in abeyance our decision on what tariffs and taxes business is to be burdened with, we must expect unemployment and business stagnation."

"This communication is a mere sample of many in circulation and ought to spur us on to action. We should delay no longer. Let us give to the country a tariff policy in some form, whatever it may be and then tell business to proceed to adjust itself to the new law. Business needs today, more than anything else, the stabilizing effect of having our tax and tariff laws settled."

FAINTED IN CHURCH

Weakened by a long illness, Mrs. Anna Taylor, a resident of Whitehorse, N. J., dropped in a faint at church service. She was carried out by the ushers who thought she was dead.

"I was subject to dizzy spells," relates Mrs. Taylor, "and they came on suddenly. I fainted so often that I was finally advised to have a card with my name and address tied about my neck, in case I should trip up some time by strangers. My nerves were upset and I trembled almost constantly. My appetite was poor and I could not sleep well though I was always tired. There were sharp pains about my heart and I had frequent headaches."

"I tried several prescriptions but nothing helped until a neighbor, who had taken Dr. Williams' Pink Pills with benefit, induced me to take them. In two weeks I felt that the pills were helping me and I continued taking them until I had recovered my lost weight and strength. I no longer have dizzy or fainting spells. I eat and sleep well and the headaches have disappeared. I believe that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills saved my life and I shall never be without them again."

Plan to Systematize Street Work and Develop General Plan From Year to Year Under Expert Direction

As there has been much discussion of the board of public service provided for in the new charter, it is given below practically entire. The claim is that this board would systematize the departmental work so that from year to year a general plan could be advanced even by slow degrees, so that eventually Lowell would have first class streets and that the work could be done under expert direction.

This section of the charter has the following provisions:

Board of Public Service. Section 30, Part 1.—A board of public service consisting of three members, one of whom shall be a civil engineer of at least five years' practice, shall be nominated by the mayor and confirmed by a majority vote of all the members of the city council for terms of one, two and three years, respectively, and thereafter their successors shall be nominated and confirmed for the term of three years. Their compensation shall be fixed by the city council and shall not exceed one thousand dollars each per annum.

Part 2. They shall organize by the choice of a chairman from their own members, and shall appoint a city engineer whom they may remove for cause deemed by them sufficient. The city engineer shall be a subordinate officer of the board of public service, and shall be subject to the orders and directions of the board. He shall act as engineer and construction inspector to all the city departments requiring such service, except in such special cases in which the board may authorise the same to be performed by one or more engineers or by one or more contractors.

Part 3. The board shall also appoint and remove, for cause which it may deem sufficient, any civil engineer, architect, engineer, or other person who shall have charge under the direction of the board of public service and city engineer of the water works of the city.

Part 4. The board of public service shall have the general direction through their executive officers of all assistants, clerks and laborers who shall be employed in one or more departments at the pleasure of the board, as to form one or more city departments which may be available for any city work which may become necessary in the departments under control of such board.

Part 5. The aforesaid executive officers shall be appointed for limited terms, but may be removed for cause which it may deem sufficient. They shall be recognized experts in such work as may devolve upon the incumbents of such offices or be persons specially fitted by their knowledge or experience to perform the same.

Part 6. Said board shall have cognizance and general direction of the construction, repair and care of streets, ways and sidewalks, and of all poles, conduits and wires in and about the city, and of the care, repair and maintenance of main drains, common sewers and catch-basins; of the construction, alteration, repair, care and maintenance of public bridges; and building and maintenance of filters and the laying of water and sewer lines, and the removal of wastes, except house offal; the care, superintendence and management of the public grounds, except the common and public parks and playgrounds, and of such grounds as are the property of other departments, as far as provided elsewhere herein. The said board shall be exclusively vested with the powers and shall be subject to the penalties and liabilities referred to in the charter.

Part 7. The said board will be responsible for the care, repair and maintenance of highways. No person, department of the city or corporation, except in case of emergency shall shut up or open for any purpose any public street or way in said city without first obtaining permission from the board.

Part 8. The said board will be responsible for the care, repair and maintenance of the three departments of engineering, streets and water works for the current fiscal year.

Part 9. The said board shall also annually, not later than the second Monday in March, prepare and furnish to the mayor and the city council a budget of all monies required for the regular operation and maintenance of the three departments of engineering, streets and water works for the current fiscal year.

Part 10. The said board shall be responsible for the care, repair and maintenance of the city for the current fiscal year, which shall also include its recommendation to the acceptance, laying out and construction of streets and other sidewalks, improvements, recommendations as to the location, installation and construction of new sewers during the fiscal year; all of which shall be accompanied by estimates of costs and outline plans of the proposed work. The recommendations as to the location, installation and construction of new sewers during the fiscal year; all of which shall be accompanied by specific data as to the material to be used and the method of construction; said report shall include also plans for the installation of water and sewer connections in any streets or ways in said city during the said fiscal year, and for that purpose the superintendent of water works shall furnish the said board with the necessary information upon which to base so much of the report as relates to water works.

Part 11. All petitions and orders not reported by the said commission for the laying out and acceptance of streets, the construction of sidewalks, sewer construction shall in the first place be referred by the city council to said board, which shall return the same to the city council with its recommendations therein not later than one month from the time of reference, unless the time is extended by a majority vote of the written request of said board, setting forth the cause therefor. If in any such case the board shall recommend new construction work or the taking of land within the fiscal year in which the report is made, the city council shall be included therein. Before executing any work or improvements, detailed plans and estimates thereof shall be submitted to the board by the department which is to execute such work or improvement, and there shall be a separate accounting as to the work or improvement so executed.

Part 12. The city engineer shall be clerk of said board and serve without compensation. The city engineer shall perform the same duties in connection with one location, laying or discontinuing streets, or altering or establishing the grade thereof, laying out or altering main drains, common sewers and sidewalks, laying or discontinuing water pipes, laying out, changing or closing filters or other purification work.

Part 13. The office of the city engineer shall contain originals or copies of all plans of streets, sidewalks, drains, catch-basins, poles, conduits, filters, buildings, buildings, pipes and all other structures built or changed by labor or contract in sufficient detail and so kept that they may be available at any time for the said board, all city departments and the public.

PARTY LINES IGNORED ON PANAMA TOLL IN THE SENATE

Mass. Senators on Opposite Sides--American Legion Starts an Active Campaign--Women Assail Winslow on Maternity Bill--Still Unreported

(Special to The Sun) WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 15.—The Republicans call the Democrats of the Senate "a noisy and selfish minority"; Democrats retort by dubbing the Republicans "a split majority without harmony or leadership" in a way both accusations are true. Playing for political advantage is one of the features of the fall session; for primary elections are less than a year away and another election looms in sight, the victory in which both parties are striving to write on their political slate.

But when it comes to a vote, neither party is running true to the old-fashioned custom of standing by its own. Take for instance, the vote on the Panama free tolls bill. Scarcely a state threw its combined vote on the same side of the question. This was especially noticeable in the New England delegation. Senator Lodge voted against the measure, and Senator Walsh for it; Maine split, even the both senators are Republicans; New Hampshire and Vermont did likewise. One each of the Rhode Island and Connecticut senators was present and voted, the other senators from these states were absent from the room when the vote was taken. Other parts of the country showed the same independence, and if that method of breaking party lines is to continue, it will be practically impossible to forecast the result of any vote on big measures. On matters that come more directly under partisan principles, the Democrats are hanging together much more firmly than are the Republicans, whose ranks are badly split among the men representing agricultural and industrial districts. These so-called "Blocs" are likely to cause a big upheaval in Republican ranks, and many compromises and modifications of original plans must be the order of the day, if the Senate is going to assist in making good the campaign pledges of the party in power.

One thing that is bothering the Republicans who are still titular leaders although shorn of much of their genuine power, is the determined effort of the progressives and the Farmers' block are making to win Democratic support to their side of the case. They do not expect the Democrats will follow them when the final vote comes, but they do expect the Democrats will join with them in forcing through amendments that will shape the bill along the lines, when it comes to a vote. In that case the Republicans must either kill the bill they are gathering, or adopt it with amendments that are obnoxious to the conservative leaders of that party. It's a case of turn-about, however, and the Democrats are trying to make the trade fit their own views, and bid for the support of the discredited Republican faction. In case the other method fails to the ground, this week there has been much bitter

Philadelphia, Pa.—"At the age of sixteen my daughter was having trouble every month. She had bad pains across her back and in her sides, her back would pain her so that she could not do her work and would have to lie down. My married daughter recommended Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. She took it faithfully and is now regular and has no pain. We recommend the Vegetable Compound and give you permission to publish this letter."—Mrs. KATHY ECKER, 4034 N. Fairhill St., Philadelphia, Pa.

Standing all day, or sitting in cramped positions and often with wet feet, young girls contract deformed conditions, and before they are hardly aware of it they develop headaches, backache, irregularities, nervousness and bearing-down pains, all of which are symptoms of woman's ills. If every mother who has a daughter suffering from such symptoms would profit by the experience of Mrs. Eicher and give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a fair trial, we may expect the same happy result.

12,000 REFUSE TO WORK ALPHONSE AND GASTON

Miners Who Quit When Howat and Dorchy Were Jailed, Remain Idle

PITTSBURG, Kas., Oct. 15.—The administration of President Alexander M. Howat of the Kansas mine workers, suspended by John L. Lewis, president of the International union, continued in office today and approximately 12,000 miners who quit work when Howat and August Dorchy, union vice president, were sent to jail for violating the criminal section of the Industrial Court act, remained idle.

Meantime, observers here were watching closely what many thought was a break in the ranks of the strikers, with those in the north favoring continued refusal to recognize the provisional organization set up under President Lewis' order and those in the southern end ready to go back to work.

While the suspended officials remained in charge of the district headquarters today the provisional body, established in a local hotel, sought to transact business. Each side has received notice on local banks having issued by the order.

American Legion

The American Legion is putting forth tremendous effort to get the bonus bill again on the legislative program. They have just sent out 300,000 copies of a pamphlet which the head of their lobby committee intends shall reach every senator and member of congress, as well as influence the people of the country to take up the so-called soldier cause. They claim they have "long since convinced congress of the wisdom of the measure," but all the same, no one here, except Mr. Fournier of the ways and means committee, and a few others are willing to predict an early passage of the bonus bill. The sentiment here seems to be that able-bodied veterans should wait till the sick and wounded and disabled veterans are cared for before they try to get a cash bonus for themselves.

Great Mystery Solved

An amusing incident of the ease with which a mountain can be made out of a mole hill, especially when the president is concerned, was shown a few days ago. At that time an eminent New Yorker, whose prestige in the political and business world is widely known, called at the White House and spent a half-hour with the president. When he came out, newspaper men flocked round him like honey bees in June, but the eminent man merely smiled and protested his call had been "purely social and had no political significance." Newspapers get that answer so often when big things are at stake, but not to be made public, that they took no stock in the answer. The next time they met the president in the bi-weekly conference he grants members of the press gallery, one of the men asked President Harding if they might be informed of the nature of the great man's visit. The president looked thoughtful, shook his head and said, "No, I don't believe I care to mention it." Then the newspapermen exchanged knowing looks, as much as to say "I told you so—it's something big." One of them put out another bid for information, saying, "Mr. President, won't you give us just an inkling?" Then the president smiled broadly and said, "Yes, I will. If you must know, he came to challenge me to a game of golf. I accepted the challenge and he beat me by two strokes." The mystery of the great man's visit was solved, and the president, who hasn't forgotten the days when he was getting news for his own paper, thoroughly enjoyed the joke he had played on "the boys," as he calls them, by his apparent reluctance to talk.

Women Assail Winslow

Congresswoman Winslow of Massachusetts, chairman of the Interstate and Foreign Commerce Committee, has been vigorously assailed by women who are pressing the Maternity bill for passage, because it has not yet been reported out of his committee. But if they are indignant about the bill, the colonel is equally indignant over the things they are crediting him with saying, and which he forcefully denies.

A woman writes on the subject recently quoted Colonel Winslow as having said: "Only over my dead body will the bill come out of my committee" and she added that in that case "somebody had better commit murder." Colonel Winslow this week made a statement to your correspondent in which he denies the truth of that story. It is known Colonel Winslow is not counted as favoring the bill, but regarding the use of such language or a determined purpose of holding it up in committee Mr. Winslow said: "There is not a word of truth in that statement." When asked by The Sun correspondent if he had anything to add, Colonel Winslow replied, "No, I think that will fit and flat denial covers it all."

Senator Walsh Active

There have been no matters of local New England interest before congress this week, the time being mostly spent in discussion of the tax bill and treaty in the senate and by routine work in the house. Senator David L. Walsh has been in constant attendance on the floor of the senate during the discussion of the tax bill taking an active part in the debate. When the Panama bill came up for a vote Mr. Walsh voted for the free passage of American coastwise ships through the canal, thus taking another stand for "America first."

Congressman Rogers has not yet returned to Washington since the recess, but is expected here the last of week.

Soothing and Healing Promotes Skin Health

LONDON, Oct. 15.—Discussions of the relations between the United States and Great Britain filled much space in today's papers. Aside from references to the probable visit of Prime Minister Lloyd George to Washington and arrangements for Monday's ceremony in Westminster Abbey, there was printed a long appeal from prominent persons interested in the Sulgrave Institution asking the public immediately to raise £50,000. This institution has been working to bring about closer relations between America and Great Britain and sponsored the work of restoring the ancestral home of George Washington, which was recently dedicated.

The sum asked for by the institution is desired as a "prelude to American Armistice Day and as a practical evidence of British interest in the movement toward a better understanding." The London Times and the Morning Post warmly recommended the appeal. Prime Minister Lloyd George's proposed visit to America was commented upon by the Daily Chronicle, which remarked his departure would be dependent upon the Irish conference and expressed confidence that if the prime minister arrived after the opening of the Washington meeting, Americans would attribute his tardiness to a good cause.

Suit Against Carpenters' District Council

CHICAGO, Oct. 15.—Eight woodworking and lumber companies have filed suit against the Chicago Carpenters' district council charging that the council is a monopoly and asking a temporary injunction against it, it became known today. The court was asked to restrain from interfering with men who are willing to work under different contracts from those stipulated by the council, which controls 20,500 carpenters, according to the bill. The eight concerns employ 2500 carpenters who are known as inside men. Counsel for the company said that mill and factory owners were compelled through the council to pay $1.10 an hour whereas in other cities the scale was 70 to 85 cents.

My heart became affected; I had shortness of breath; the action of my kidneys was irregular, the secretions scanty and scalding.

I was knocked out, and good for nothing, when I read about 'Fruit-a-tives' and sent for a box. I used a few and thought, 'well, they will turn out like all the other remedies I have tried' but to my surprise and gladness, I noticed improvement and I continued the use of 'Fruit-a-tives', (or Fruit Liver Tablets) with the result that a dozen boxes made me feel like a different person."

"The Case of Becky" Is Diagnosed as Dementia Praecox

CONSTANCE BINNEY, SHE'S HEROINE OF "THE CASE OF BECKY," A POOR ATTEMPT TO HANDLE A PSYCHIC PROBLEM IN A PHOToplay. GLENN HUNTER IS THE JUVENILE LEADING MAN

BY JAMES W. DEAN
NEW YORK, Oct. 15.—The wings grow on Dorothy's chivalries until Prof. Batziano shines 15-candlepower plate-glass diamond in her eyes. Then she becomes Becky with naughty impulses.

The Prof. was B. H. P.—meaning Bachelor of Jokus Pokus.

He mesmerized Dorothy's mother and she followed diamond while the Professor used Dorothy as sideshow exhibit to gather in shekels at high towns.

Homer died and Dorothy did ten miles on Dixie Highway to old home- stead. Rustic swain gave her drink of water and pair of cat's eyes.

Then he pulled fox paw. He gave her diamond and that caused her autohypnotism. She mused on two men's cylinders and threw consolation fit.

Dr. Emerson took her to his nut garage for brain overhauling. Found crossed wires and by blunt instrument Dorothy was his own daughter. News-paper clipping kept in Houdini-proof box said so.

Prof. Bamboozle was good at second-story work. Climbed in Dorothy's room and shook mean diamond at her. Discovered! "Meet muk at the hotel when the cuckoo cucks nine," he hissed.

Dr. Emerson took Dorothy to metaphysical laboratory and whirled twelve signs of the zodiac on her white calf-eyed swain held her Ily-white.

Dorothy completely equilibrated. Becky and naughty impulses evaporated into nothingness whence they came. The cuckoo cucked in vain. The Prof. 35-calibered his left temple.

Dorothy and swain vision-wine-covered cottage with mock-orange hedge and double-exposure children running around it. Fade-out.

This film is called "The Case of Becky." Constance Binney is Becky, Montagu Love the Prof. and Glenn Hunter the swain. The moral is: It bugged.

UNITED STATES MARINE BAND CONCERT

Great interest is being evoked among lovers of good music in Lowell in the season's opening attraction, the appearance on Oct. 25 of the United States Marine band at the Strand theatre. Lowell is known as an international reputation as one of the most highly trained organizations of its kind in the country, the band has been used for years as the official musical unit in national affairs at Washington, D. C., and has been in participation that Lowell aviation, visiting that "Bob" Taylor of Tennessee. Turning to the city is due the Lowell Rotary club who is presenting the band as a benefit for the Lowell Boys' club. The band will give both an afternoon and evening program.

With every one of its scarlet robed members a citizen of the United States, either native born or naturalized, the United States Marine band is in this respect the most unique of all the great musical organizations of this country.

Until the fall of 1911 it was only at intervals of from ten to twenty years that the band had been heard outside of Washington. But one hot summer afternoon, the band was in session when the band was playing one of its famous concerts at the east front of the capitol. Among a group of senators who had stopped as usual to listen to the music was the late Senator

"Hans I want my people down in Tennessee to hear this band and I know you would like to have my house to hear them too. Come and join me in a request to President Taft to give the band permission to go." The result was that permission was gladly given and that enthusiasm with which the band received throughout the country has led to similar requests from senators and representatives for tours each year.

President Harding has taken the position that such tours, being made at the season of the year when the band is away from Washington, will not interfere with any of its official duties, afford much pleasure to those citizens who do not have the privilege of hearing their band in Washington; that the visits of the band not only tend to promote the patriotic pride of our people, but that the concerts are also of educational value.

VOTERS NOT TO BLAME

All the time the trouble here isn't with the charter. It is plainly with the people. It doesn't make any difference what charter you have, really, so long as the voters don't act on the proper basis in choosing the men to run the shop. This doesn't sound gracious or pleasant, but it's also true and we all know it—so why dodge the truth? If the new charter offered the slightest hope that it would improve the voter's chances of exhibiting a little wisdom, one might argue for it. but how does it seem to you to do any such thing?—Courier-Citizen Cattall.

The above is a sample of the unreasoning drivel the Courier-Citizen has been dishing out occasionally, despite all the facts and arguments to the contrary.

In the opinion of our neighbor, the people alone are to blame as they do not elect the right kind of officials and hence, according to this authority, no change in charter will accomplish any improvement in our city government.

We say that the people are not to blame for the deficiencies in our system of government. They have to select from the candidates who present themselves and the lure of the salary has brought the politicians into the game so that all others, even the most desirable business men, are shut out.

The politician with a machine behind him carries off the commissionership, and as each commissioner is the head of one or more departments, therefore, we have a government chiefly by politicians. Nor are we prepared to hold the members of the municipal council entirely responsible for the shortcomings of our government.

The system is more to blame than the men and unless the present charter is abolished there can never be any improvement in our city government.

On the contrary, it will continue to grow worse. The new charter is the result of an honest effort by a body of business men to provide a remedy for present conditions.

The chief opponents of the new charter are the officials, who think they are more secure under the present charter than they would be under the new charter. That is not a reason why the new charter should be rejected. Heads of departments should be removable at the will of the mayor or the city council when they fail to show satisfactory results in their departments.

This will be the rule under the new charter if adopted.

If charters are of no use, then charters are equally worthless, for a charter such as we are to pass upon next Tuesday, is merely offered as the ornate law of the city, setting forth the framework and plan of our city government. If, as the Courier-Citizen claims, a charter is of no use, then the same charge will apply to the constitution of the United States.

The charge that city government is more a matter of men than of charters, is true only when the men are of the highest integrity and capability. For men of a different type it is necessary to have a practical system from which they cannot depart without leaving themselves open to criticism for violation of the law.

The new charter will give us a council of fifteen men at $1,500 a year, whereas the present gives us but four, in addition to the mayor, at a cost of $10,000.

The failure of the present charter is shown in the fact that in ten years, only twelve men served as commissioners in addition to the three who filled the office of mayor. Does that give the people a chance?

The larger board will give us men from various walks of life, will give each ward representation and will install an executive with power to see that the city's business is safeguarded at every point. These are a few of the reasons why we favor the new charter.

The present defective system far more than the men in office is responsible for the defects in our city government. The people are not to blame for that over which they have no control. We believe the citizens want good government and it is only a defective charter that stands in their way. They will have an opportunity to rectify that next Tuesday.

TO BOOM BUSINESS

And now the Rotarians of the country are to take a hand in the revival of the optimistic spirit necessary to the real revival of business.

They are to put out 75,000 posters all over the country with slogans and statements showing the upper trend and steady improvement in business. The United States cabinet will assist in this work and as it assumes a national aspect, its importance should not be underestimated.

In 15,000 towns and cities these posters will convey messages of confidence and cheer as the heralds of better times not coming but right here. The effort is to pull the wheels of business out of the rut and the Rotarians ask everybody to join in the supreme effort to get every place of business to start running full blast.

The wholesale houses in the middle west report a steady improvement in business, which is but the result of better sales by the retailers.

There can be no denying the fact that many manufacturers have had to sustain heavy losses during the past six months by trying to do business in the face of a falling market. The most important message is: "Remember, cancer in its beginning can be cured."

That is true of nearly all diseases.

At least once a year, everyone should go to a doctor and a dentist for a thorough examination. Health dangers, nipped in the bud, could be eliminated.

They were confident that conditions

HOW GERMANY PAYS

Germany signs an agreement, with France, to deliver $1,800,000,000 worth of building materials.

That is the way Germany ultimately will pay her indemnity. Allies have the gold and want Germany to pay in gold. But there isn't enough gold in the world to permit that.

French makers of building materials will suffer from the flood of German goods. War is always a loss, even to the victor.

The new charter has absolutely nothing that favors contract labor any more than does the present charter. Contracts are necessary on bridges and buildings, pumps for the water department, and jobs of that kind.

We surmise that most people will agree that it is the logical thing to have health matters, whether in the schools or out of them, under the control of the board of health, the body that has full legal authority to enforce its orders.

Can you imagine Valley Forge or Gettysburg for sale to the highest bidder? Well, the British government has placed Istanbymede on the market as "Lot No. 6 of the Crown Lands." But the government needs the money to help release the prevalent distress.

Ward representation under the new charter will turn the city government back to the people.

Hyde Park's fight against exorbitant street railway fares may soon bear fruit.

The perfect salesman is one who can sell you garden seeds when you need snowshoes.

SEEN AND HEARD

The cheapest looking thing at a bargain counter is a man.

Russian rubles are quoted at a nickel a thousand if you do your own hauling.

The mouth of the Amazon is over 10 miles wide. The Amazon was a race of women.

The leaves are falling and Nature is getting into its coat of variegated autumn yellow, but I notice that the beauty of Columbus park gardens does not fade, and visitors still go there to admire the beautiful greenery and flowers hanging on many of the bushes.

The Fly Killer

A man passed through a country village pushing a wheelbarrow full of sand. This sand he was selling at a nickel a bag, telling people that it was a sure fly killer. Purchasing a bag, a stout old dame asked him how it should be used. "First catch a fly," exclaimed the vendor, "then tickle it under its chin with a straw, and when it opens its mouth throw a handful of this famous fly poison down its throat and the result will be that thy instantly chokes and dies." "What?" exclaimed the old lady, "while I was doing that I could have squashed it under my foot six times over." "Yes," replied the sandman, unconcernedly, "that is a good method as well."

Papa Didn't Count

"The war, prohibition, taxes, and a new president have turned everything so topsy turvy that we are losing our sense of proportion and are getting like a lot of children," said William J. Bryan recently. "A great many people I come in contact with nowadays remind me of little Muriel. Muriel the other day came running to her mother, crying: 'O-o-o, mamma! Did you hear the ladder fall down just now?' 'No, dear. How did the ladder happen to fall down?' 'Well, papa was washing the window and it slipped, and when it fell it broke three flower pots. I told daddy you'd be cross.' 'O dear,' cried the mother. 'I hope your father hasn't hurt himself!' 'I don't think he has yet,' replied the child, 'he was hanging onto the window sill when I came away to tell you about the flower pots.'

When October Calls

Just received a letter from an old-time friend way back in the country near the river bend.

Sain is getting jonesome. So he writes to me. Says he wants to take a jaunt through the woods to see what the game is doing.

Says he wants to roam a bit where the partridge plays.

Wants to see a fox run through the pasture bars. Thinks a day with Gyp the hound would beat a trip to Mars.

Says he knows a rabbit den. Where they game free! Used to be some coons there, too! (Just 'twix you and me!)

Game birds, thick and slightly. Over yonder glen! Ripping sports is waiting for the wing-shot men.

Thinks I'll get my outfit ready for a trip through the woods with "Sure-shot" Sam and my dog Gyp.

Nothing like the country when the days are fine. Trekking through God's acres just like they were mine!

City folks, you're missing all the fun I know. If you never raise Where the hunters go!

Sport you'll find a-plenty. With the run and dogs. When you hit the woodlands in your khaki toggs.

Good old month—October! Welcome every year! Glad indeed to hear the call and answer: Here!

MAN ABOUT TOWN

I wonder how many Lowell citizens know that the tall, young, dark-complexioned man behind the counter in a certain Middlesex street dry goods store about half-way between Gorham street and the depot, is a full-pledged attorney and counselor-at-law. I made this discovery yesterday: Philip Samuels, salesman and owner of two lively stores in Lowell, is none other than Philip Samuels, attorney and counselor-at-law, of room 604, Carney building, 14 Tremont street, Boston. There is also a branch office in Waltham. Mr. Samuels explained to me, when I dropped in to buy a necktie, that he was a graduate from Northeastern College, also from Iowa State university, and studied three years at the Boston Y.M.C.A. law school. He has no intention of giving up the practice of law, but just at present he says he must attend to his growing business, which keeps him on the jump. As for the law, it can wait, he says, though he will resume practice before long. Mr. Samuels was attorney for the Boston Journeyman Tailors' union during the latter's strike.

Jurymen who are "not working" during the week up at the courthouse breathe sighs of relief every Friday morning, when most of them are released from duty until the following Monday. This week has not been very busy for most of the members of the October panel, and "Home, James!" sounds mighty good on a Friday morning.

If the district representative leaders think they can change the old republican district south of Lowell without some noise being heard in protest, they are much mistaken. I am told that movement is underway to give the larger towns four years and the smaller ones two consecutive years' representation. At the present time a town like Carlisle, for instance, can have a representative but once in turn with the other towns in the district. Now it is desired that Carlisle be allowed to have a representative for two years in succession, if the incumbent fails to meet the required bill. This movement can but benefit the small towns. There is some curiosity to know just why some of them are said to be against the plan. Are they afraid the balance of power in the larger towns will be increased?

At Huntington hall, G. W. Poore called to order and introduced Mr. Taft, who was proud of the fact that he was a railroad man. Then J. G. Abbott, president of the club, said that the railroad men were going to save the country.

As for the democrats and their platform of 10 to 1, they did not have the money to hold very many torchlight parades and hence what funds they had were devoted to hiring halls and carriages for the speakers and burning a little red fire along the way to the hall, while many thousands of spectators lined the sidewalks. It might be said that the republicans held fully 16 torchlight parades for every one held by the democrats. Mark Hanna's money was freely distributed among the parading organizations and great were the "feets" provided by caterers at the close of the big parades.

TEACHING 'EM HOW TO SPEAK IN PUBLIC

Dale Carnegie, the founder and author of the United Y.M.C.A. school's course in public speaking, will talk at the Lowell Y.M.C.A. on Tuesday, October 18th at 8 o'clock. All men are invited to hear him on that evening.

The association will not attempt to train Lowell men to deliver Anthony's orations over the dead body of Caesar or Decimus Webster's Reply to Haynes; but this course will train them to think on their feet and talk convincingly to one man or a thousand. Many men can manage a business interview with marked ability, but are lost the moment they attempt to stand on their feet and speak to a group. The Y.M.C.A. is providing an opportunity for such men to get together one night a week and be drilled in putting their talk across before an audience.

SLATTERY FOR SERVICE IS HIS SLOGAN

The office of Edward F. Slattery, Jr., real estate and insurance, reports a volume of business which even exceeds that of last year. Mr. Slattery is located in the Strand building on Central street, and while he has in his employ but one salesman and a bookkeeper his office will compare favorably with any in the city. In the amount of real estate transactions recorded, Mr. Slattery has as his assistant Mr. George B. Delany, who is an experienced real estate salesman, and a young man who has a large following among the younger business men of the city.

While Mr. Slattery is still a young man, he has been in business for himself for seven years and spent several years in another office learning the business before starting out for himself. He is also conducting a large insurance business and has been recently appointed the agent of one of the largest fire insurance companies in the country. At present, Mr. Slattery is making a specialty of the automobile insurance and reports great activity in this field of insurance. Mr. Slattery has adopted as his selling slogan "Slattery for Service" and he is only too pleased to show the public that he intends to live up to it.

BLUENOSE IN LEAD IN ELIMINATION RACE

BELFAST, Oct. 15.—(By the Associated Press)—Sir James Craig, the Ulster premier, in an address here today dealing with the Irish conference in London and with Ulster's position regarding it, made remarks which were regarded as a strong intimation that he expects to participate in the peace negotiations. During the course of Sir James' address, he said he might not have an opportunity of making another public speech for some time, "as I may be engaged in most delicate operations regarding the future of our beloved country."

HALIFAX, N. S., Oct. 15.—Eight fishing smacks, groomed like thoroughbreds for a horse race, now wait at 1000 feet of water for the next of two elimination trials which will determine the Nova Scotian schooner to meet Elsie of Gloucester for the blue ribbon of the north Atlantic, off this port, Oct. 22.

Bluenose led across the starting line, practically on the gun. Following her closely were Canada, Acre Independence and Duffy, the rest being buncheted back of the line.

The first leg about six miles, was laid down from the starting line to a buoy off Bear Cove, south by the compass. Then the course turned southeast for a distance of a little over six miles to another automatic buoy after which came a stretch of nearly 10 miles southwest to Sambro lightship.

Wheeling around the lightship, the racers were ordered to work back northeast a little over 11 miles to the buoy which had marked the end of the first leg. The last leg was identical with the first, ocean terminals breaking being both the starting and finish line.

Bluenose rounded the first mark in the lead at 11.13.30 (unofficial time), followed about four minutes later by Canada. Next in the procession were Acre, Donald J. Cook, Delaware and Independence, with Uda Corkum and Duffy trailing astern. All the racers were wrapped in fog and from the press boat it was impossible to see a boat length ahead.

Bluenose maintained her lead on the spur to sea, and rounded the second mark trailed by Uda, Alcalá, Delaware and Donald J. Cook.

Independence was making up for the buoy, while Duffy and Corkum were trailing astern. The leader made the turn at about 12 o'clock and a few minutes later the wind increased to 15 knots.

Alcalá Takes Lead

Positions changed on the third leg. First Canada out of Shelburne, took the lead away from Bluenose, and then, 15 minutes later, Alcalá crossed Canada's bow, slipping into a fine position.

The leaders were making for the Sambro lightship, the third mark, completing a little more than half of the course.

At 1.25 the Bluenose had dropped from third to fourth place, with Delaware filling her boots.

Bluenose Again in Lead

The Bluenose rounded the buoy in the lead at 2.26, the Canada following at 2.27.30 and the Alcalá at 2.28.35.

THREE MEN FELL FROM STAGING

Three men were injured but not seriously when a staging upon which they were working at the home of the Marist brothers, in Moody street, broke late yesterday afternoon. Small Veillette of 116 Woburn street, received a fracture of the shoulder and other abrasions, while George Leemius of 136 Tremont street, sustained a fractured arm. The third man, Wilfrid Mether, whose address is said to be 30 Maria Sanchez, More than 20,000 persons are said to have had a mass meeting yesterday afternoon and later to have staged a parade. Their line of march was guarded by soldiers in trucks. If reports from the city are true, conditions are said to be such that a proclamation of martial law may be expected before nightfall.

JOHN, THE DONKEY
MAN, KILLED

REVERE, Oct. 15.—John, the Donkey Man, who was known to thousands of children for the last 15 or 20 years and who during the summer had delighted their hearts at Revere beach and also in the town of Revere and city of Chelsea with rides on his donkeys, is dead.

Last night about 5.15 John, whose real name was John Drummey and who lived at 53 Carroll street, Chelsea, was injured on the Revere beach parkway, about 300 feet west of Revere, when an automobile struck him. He was leading one of his favorite burros at the time. The animal was so severely injured it was later killed by Dr. Norman T. Harris, a veterinarian of 25 Parkway. It was the property of ex-Mayor James H. Malone of Chelsea.

Roads of the Transcontinental Passenger association in Pacific coast states have reduced the rate to one and one-third cents a mile, but the reduction will not extend to those riding in sleeping cars.

Owing to an error the name of Luther W. Faulkner was omitted from the mayor's unemployment committee which was announced yesterday. Mr. Faulkner, who is part commander of Post 87, American Legion, will represent the ex-service men.

Why Dread Old Age?

It don't make much difference how old you are if you only keep in good health and are active. Many people appear older at 50 than others do at 70, to keep looking young you have got to enjoy good health, and do as little worrying as possible. Backaches, swollen joints and legs, disturbed sleep by being compelled to arise one or more times during the night are sure symptoms of kidney trouble, and should have immediate attention to avoid serious consequences. SEVEN BARKS, nature's remedy of roots and herbs, is one of the best remedies to take not only for affected kidneys, but for liver, stomach and heart troubles.

Middle-aged people realize that they cannot perform their work or move around as fast as formerly. The intestinal organs feel the effect of age and do not perform their work properly.

The heart palpitates on the slightest exertion and the back aches after a day's work. The muscles and flesh get flabby, and the blood thinner than formerly. It is then you need a good tonic and bowel regulator—you cannot afford a more reliable and efficient remedy for these conditions than SEVEN BARKS.

If you want to enjoy life, recover some of your youthful vigor and have the glow of health, get SEVEN BARKS, of your druggist. Do not accept a substitute.—ADV.

ROADS CUT RATES
FOR LEGION DELEGATES

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Oct. 15.—The one cent passenger rate for members of the American Legion and their families attending the National Legion convention here, October 31 to November 2, was extended yesterday to all railroads composing the Western Passenger association. The rate applies to those riding in sleeping cars, as well as day coaches. Pullman rates, however, will not be reduced.

All of the eastern railroads have granted the one cent rate applicable to coaches and sleepers.

Roads of the Transcontinental Passenger association in Pacific coast states have reduced the rate to one and one-third cents a mile, but the reduction will not extend to those riding in sleeping cars.

MR. FAULKNER ON
MAYOR'S COMMITTEE

Owing to an error the name of Luther W. Faulkner was omitted from the mayor's unemployment committee which was announced yesterday. Mr. Faulkner, who is part commander of Post 87, American Legion, will represent the ex-service men.

Why Dread Old Age?

It don't make much difference how old you are if you only keep in good health and are active. Many people appear older at 50 than others do at 70, to keep looking young you have got to enjoy good health, and do as little worrying as possible. Backaches, swollen joints and legs, disturbed sleep by being compelled to arise one or more times during the night are sure symptoms of kidney trouble, and should have immediate attention to avoid serious consequences. SEVEN BARKS, nature's remedy of roots and herbs, is one of the best remedies to take not only for affected kidneys, but for liver, stomach and heart troubles.

Middle-aged people realize that they cannot perform their work or move around as fast as formerly. The intestinal organs feel the effect of age and do not perform their work properly.

The heart palpitates on the slightest exertion and the back aches after a day's work. The muscles and flesh get flabby, and the blood thinner than formerly. It is then you need a good tonic and bowel regulator—you cannot afford a more reliable and efficient remedy for these conditions than SEVEN BARKS.

If you want to enjoy life, recover some of your youthful vigor and have the glow of health, get SEVEN BARKS, of your druggist. Do not accept a substitute.—ADV.

BANGOR, Me., Oct. 15.—Deputy

The room was ventilated by hollow logs, one of which was equipped with mirrors for use as a periscope. Water to cool the worm of the still flowed into the room from the stream which was dammed and the flow regulated by a gate. Clay shelves held lamps, razors, shaving mugs, etc. The room was unoccupied, but the stove was warm.
